LIMIT OF HUMAN ENDURANCE REACHED IN BLOODY BATTLE

Conflict Halts While Opposing Armies Rest From Ten Days' Struggle Waged Without Sleep or Rest—First Attempt to Break Through Allied Lines by Germans Proves a Failure on Part of the Invaders.

GERMANS ARE BRINGING UP MORE MEN AND GUNS

The Two Armies Have Fought Themselves Out, Temporarily. Next Attempt to Break the Line Will be Further Inland, Out of Reach of the British Fleet—Russia Claims a Victory in the Far East—Holland Uneasy.

London, Oct. 28.—The limit of human endurance has been reached in the battle in West Flanders, and the fighting, which slackened yesterday, came to an almost complete stop today. There may have been some minor infantry attacks, but dispatches from points along the Dutch frontier declare the artillery firing has ceased.

These advices, it is believed here tonight, were responsible for the report that the Germans had retired, having given up their attempt to reach the channel ports.

The fact is, the two armies have fought themselves out temporarily and the Germans' first effort to break through the allies' lines has failed. On both sides the men had been without sleep or rest for ten days of the battle, which was fought over ground which, at best, is a morass.

There is every evidence that the Germans intend to renew their attempt to force their way through to Dunkirk. They are bringing up fresh men and more ammunition and guns, but at the same time are taking the precaution to prepare a second line of defense should their forward movement again meet with defeat.

The new attempt, it is believed, will be made further inland, for the failure of the first one was largely due to bombardment from British and French warships off the coast.

The cessation of heavy fighting seems to have extended along the line as far as Arras. The result of it all is that the Germans, while they have suffered heavy losses and have inflicted similar punishment on the allies, are further from the French coast than at the beginning of the battle.

FORCES IN NIGHT ATTACKS.

The small forces left to hold the line from the Oise to the Meuse while the greater battle is proceeding, have been engaging in night attacks at different points, the advantage sometimes going to the one and sometimes to the other. It is said that in one of these night attacks near Craonne the Germans lost 2,000 men.

Along the Meuse the French are advancing slowly between Apremont and St. Mihiel in an effort to cut off the Germans holding the latter place.

The German official report today says the Germans were forced to withdraw to Poland in the face of Russian reinforcements.

The Russians claim to be making progress against the Austrians who advanced through Galicia and attacked their left wing, and on the East Prussian frontier they also say they have repulsed the German offensive from that quarter.

The greater part of Africa has been drawn into the conflict. It is reported that Germans have invaded Angola, one of Portugal's African possessions; that there has been fighting on the borders of the German and Belgian colonies; and that the British and Germans have been having more skirmishes.

Still more serious, however, is the rebellion in South Africa, although Premier Botha, who withheld news of the rising led by Generals Beyers and DeWet until he himself got into action, seems to have inflicted a severe defeat on General Beyers, routing his command and taking a number of prisoners.

The invasion of Angola was not unexpected, for Portugal had declared her intention of helping the Allies, and, in view of the possibility of a German attack on her colonies, has sent reinforcements to her garrison. Portugal, if the report of the German invasion is true, is the ninth nation drawn into the war. There is danger of still others following.

Holland fears her neutrality may be violated. The mouth of the Scheldt, which the Germans, now that they have Antwerp, would find of much service, and the eastern border of the Netherlands, on which the Germans are massing troops, are the danger points.

The Dutch government declares it is prepared to guard the country's neutrality at any cost.

OFFICERS TELL OF BATTLE.

Heroic Efforts of Belgians Result in Bad Defeat for Germans.

Paris, Oct. 28.—Officers returning from the front describe a difficult and dangerous task performed by the native troops during the night along the Belgian coast.

In absolute darkness they surprised and destroyed a German ammunition park, putting out of action several batteries which had caused great annoyance. All the German sentries were killed and a thicket where the ammunition wagons were sheltered was burnde.

The German lines have been visibly thinned to the south of Lille and St. Quentin and along the lines of trenches leading to the eastern frontier, but in the neighborhood of Craonne and Berry-Au-Bac, on the Aisne, where General Von Kluck is commanding, the German forces are in great strength.

It is believed the German troops who captured Antwerp are now massed near the Belgian coast and that they are assisted by additional divisions, which have been brought from the long front where the siege has progressed so many weeks.

A recurrence of the German offensive was expected near Craonne, where General Von Kluck started a sharp diversion to test the strength of the Allies' lines and was thrown back. Further east, in the Argonne region and on the frontier, severe fighting continues incessantly. As the result the French troops are reported to have made constant progress.

Allies Cavalry Active.

The Allies' cavalry are performing marvels of endurance. One regiment took part in ten encounters in a single day, at the same time covering more than 40 miles of ground. The other detachments are doing equally well. Their orders are to hold the Germans back and worry them night and day, but they also have developed an offensive movement of their own and have succeeded in driving the Germans into the reserves.

The Allies' artillerymen have successfully adopted a ruse to prevent the German aviators from discovering the position of their batteries. They keep piles of brushwood near their guns and when a German aeroplane is signalled the brushwood is placed over the guns and the men lie down beneath it, or take shelter in the trees until the airmen pass out of sight.

Eight French cannon put 18 German 8-inch guns out of action in a half hour between the Aisne and the Oise and prevented the Germans from effecting a plan to cut communications.

Prior to this, French and German cavalry fought a minor action, the Germans being repulsed.

PETROL SUPPLY EXHAUSTED.

Germans in Belgium Face Grave Situation is Report from Brussels.

Brussels, via London, Oct. 28.—German troops in central Belgium virtually have exhausted their petrol supply. They apparently are unable to secure a return of large quantities of fuel oil they shipped here.

The Germans requisitioned many second hand horses, which they formerly had ignored, and also horse vehicles.

Letters received here indicate that M. Max, formerly burgomaster of Brussels, is still held in Leipsic by German officials. His refusal to turn over the fire department tower and ladders led to his arrest.

SEEKING AMERICAN SHIPS FOR COTTON

WASHINGTON D. C. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

State Department Looks for Vessels to Go to Germany

BRING BACK DYE STUFFS

Germany Has Raised Embargo on Certain Things With Stipulation That They be Exported in American Bottoms.

New York, Oct. 28.—The British government having given assurances that American cotton would be allowed to go through to Germany and Austria, American vessels are being sought in this port to carry abroad the first shipments. Robert P. Rose, foreign trade adviser of the State Department, in making this announcement here today said cotton might either be landed at ports in Holland and transported into Germany by rail or would be shipped direct to Germany.

American ships particularly are being sought because it is planned to have the vessels bring dye stuffs, cyanide, chemicals, medicines, sugar beet seed and potash on their return trips. Germany, in lifting the embargo on these products, stipulated that cyanide and dye stuffs must be carried in American bottoms.

The Matanzas, the first steamship to leave with dye stuffs from Germany since the embargo was lifted, left Rotterdam for New York today, and the Sun, an American steamer, will leave Rotterdam November 1, with the first cargo of cyanide. The prosperity of 600,000 American textile workers, it is believed here, depends on a free movement of German dye stuffs, while owners of American gold and silver mines depend largely upon German cyanide to extract those metals.

CUSTOMS COLLECTORS CANNOT TELL ABOUT CARGOES OF SHIPS

Secretary McAdoo Determined Belligerents Can Learn Nothing That Way.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Steps were taken today by Secretary McAdoo to prevent information relative to outgoing American cargoes from reaching belligerent nations through agents in this country. The Secretary instructed customs collectors as follows:

"Until further directed, you will refrain from making public or giving out to any other than duly authorized officers of the government information regarding any and all outward cargoes and the destination thereof until 30 days after the date of the clearance of the vessel or vessels carrying such cargoes."

The Secretary's order is understood to have been promulgated because such information in the past has fallen into the hands of consuls of warring nations and been used in attempts to capture vessels.

AMERICAN STEAMER TAKEN.

Cargo of Copper to Holland is Stopped. British May Let It Go Later.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The American steamer Kroonland from New York for Naples and Greece with a cargo of copper, has been detained at Gibraltar by the British authorities, but as copper is listed by the British foreign office as conditional contraband it is assumed the British government's attitude will be similar to that in the case of another American ship carrying copper to Holland. In that case when the Dutch government gave assurances that copper cargoes would not be reshipped from Holland the British government withdrew its objection.

The State Department has asked Mr. Sprague for a fuller report on the matter.

COTTON SITUATION RAPIDLY IMPROVING

Foreign Market is Now Beginning to Open Up.

Crisis Will be Greatly Relieved With Opening of Reserve Banks and Operation of Wade Pool Plan, Says McAdoo.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—While talking to Senator Simmons today about the cotton situation, Secretary McAdoo reiterated his statement, made public several days ago, that the cotton situation was improving rapidly and that with the inauguration of the Federal Reserve banks, to be opened November 15th, and the Wade subscription plan the situation will be greatly relieved.

The conference between Mr. McAdoo, the Federal Reserve Board officials, Ebstus J. Wade, of St. Louis, and the British representatives several days ago has resulted in the only good that has been accomplished for cotton people. The foreign market is now opening up and with the $135,000,000 to be raised by the Wade plan and the additional currency which will be made available when the Federal Reserve banks open, the cotton people will be well taken care of.

HOLLAND UNEASY OVER DISCOVERY

Germans Massing Large Number of Troops on Border

CEMENT TENNIS COURT

Discovered on Property of German Had Cement Bed Nine Feet Thick—Dutch Have Large Number of Soldiers on Border.

Roosendaal, Holland, via London, Oct. 28.—Holland, which has felt the pressure of the war almost as much as if she were engaged in it, is particularly alarmed at a report that the Germans are massing large numbers of troops on the eastern border.

A Dutch army of more than 300,000 trained men is scattered at strategic points along the Belgian and German boundaries. Roosendaal, the principal troop center, is the only railway gate to Berlin that is open.

The discovery of a tennis court with cement nine feet thick on the property of a German in the vicinity of Arnheim, and statements that German spies have been active near Arnheim and at other points close to the German border, have intensified anxiety.

The mouth of the river Scheldt and all the canals are heavily guarded. A large garrison is guarding the Flushing docks and railway station to prevent violation of the neutrality of the Scheldt. The river is heavily mined and Dutch cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers are lying at its mouth.

The horrors of war have been forced on virtually all Holland by the Belgian refugees whose number is now estimated at 800,000. The Dutch government is paying to the cities thirty cents daily for food for each refugee. The cities bear the other expenses connected with the influx. In Roosendaal, Flushing and other of the smaller towns there are more refugees than inhabitants.

Holland's supply of wheat for which she depends on the United States and Canada is growing meager. It is said Great Britain is delaying food cargoes to Holland and there is much adverse criticism of this action. Fears are expressed that famine conditions will prevail unless the embargo is raised.

The refugees are unwilling to return to Belgium, although Holland has offered them free transportation. The appearance of scarlet fever among those at Flushing is causing some alarm.

WAR BULLETINS

London, Oct. 28.—The Central News correspondent at Dover says: "The British fleet is still operating against the Germans off Belgium without as yet one vessel being struck. A battleship has joined in the bombardment, using her 12 inch guns."

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., Oct. 28.—The German cruiser Emden, according to an official announcement issued today, has sunk a big Japanese liner bound for Singapore. According to the Italian newspaper Stampa, the German cruisers Emden and Karlsruhe, up to the present time, have sunk 33 vessels, aggregating a tonnage of 150,000.

Amsterdam, Oct. 28, via London—The Telegraaf's correspondent at Sluis says remarkable quiet prevails along the Belgian coast. The German garrisons at Gruges, Heist and Knocke, he says, are not very large. The German commander at Bruges has ordered all British subjects between the ages of 16 and 60 to leave Belgium.

Berlin, Oct. 28, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I.—Swiss newspapers report that since the capture of the Germans of Camp Des Romains the French losses in the battle line between Toul and Verdun have been more than 60,000 men. The French officers, according to statements in these newspapers, complain of the inferior quality of the new French troops.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The action of Greece in occupying the southern end of Albania is regarded by competent observers here to be news of great moment and which may cause Italy also to occupy a part of Albania.

London, Oct. 28.—An Evening News dispatch dated Northern France and timed 7 o'clock this morning, says: "It is reported here that the Germans are falling back all along the line from LaBassee to the sea."

Berlin, via The Hague and London, Oct. 28.—James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, has secured cancellation of the German embargo on 1,000 tons of potash destined for America.

London, Oct. 28.—The Duke of Wurtemberg's army has lost heavily in the north of France, according to a dispatch received by the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris. The Germans, the message adds, lost 2,000 in killed and wounded in a night attack on the Craonne. The French casualties numbered 100.

London, Oct. 28.—The Belgian minister in London this evening received the following message from his government: "Havre, Oct. 28.—The situation of our troops on the Yser has improved. The fire of the enemy's artillery has slackened, being cupdued by the guns of the fleet. The operations of the Allies at Ypres are very satisfactory."

CARRANZA MAKES APPEAL TO WILSON

Protests Against Activities of Carothers

FRIENDLY WITH VILLA

Claims That American Representatives in Mexico Influenced by Villa Who in Turn is Controlled by American Interests.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 28.—Through Roberto V. Pesquira, his accredited diplomatic representative in the United States, General Venustiano Carranza tonight sent a personal appeal to President Wilson and the State Department protesting against the activities of George C. Carothers and alleging undue friendliness of agents of the United States toward General Villa.

The statement, given out at Constitutionalist headquarters here is Carranza's first direct appeal to this country and says in part:

"We have every reason to believe that the accredited representatives of the American government (George C. Carothers) is being influenced by Francisco Villa, alias Doroteo Arango. This is his true name. He has assumed the name of Francisco Villa only for reasons known to himself. This fact we would like the State Department and the American public to know.

"At the very moment he was openly declaring friendship for the United States he was threatening to invade this nation at El Paso and declared to his closest advisers that he would conquer the nation in a few months' campaign. That when a few months ago, Arango was declaring that the conduct of the United States was justified in the Vera Cruz matter, he was at the same time swearing vengeance upon this nation.

"I think the Washington administration, and especially Mr. Wilson himself, should know in view of his Mobile speech and the sentiments expressed then that the special interests that have played such an important part in American politics and sustained administrations of the past, are in league with this same Doroteo Arango."

RATES ON SUGAR FROM LOUISIANA ARE TOLD

Congressman Writes to Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Representative Broussard, of Louisana, in a letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission today called attention to the interest of cane sugar growers of Louisana and Texas i nthe pending application of etstern railroads for a five perecnt general freight rate increase. Mr. Broussard declared carriers had allowed the Seaboard Sugar Refining Company "to so batten upon their revenues" that its annual output of 2,000,000 pounds is being hauled from the Atlantic Coast to distributing points of the middle west at a loss of nearly sixty per cent. of the published rate.

"If this enormous tonnage was haudled at a profit by the eastern railroads" the letter continued, "the revenue would do a long way towards relieving the actual distress of which they now complain."

Arguments on the roads' application for a five per cent. increase will be heard tomorrow.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Western Union Telegraph Company announced today that after November 1, the use of code in cable messages will be limited to cablegrams between the United States and Canada, and between Ireland and the United Kingdam of Great Britain. All the messages will be decoded by the English censors before delivery.

REPLIES INDICATE THE SUCCESS OF LOAN PLAN

Clearing Houses From All Sections Accept Proposition.

There is Little Doubt But That Plan Will Prove Success—Reserve Board Will Make Known Decision Last of Week

Washington, Oct. 28.—Replies have reached the Treasury Department from clearing houses in various parts of the country accepting the cotton loan fund plan. The Federal Reserve Board, however, does not expect to be in a position to announce adoption of the plan until late this week.

Little doubt is expressed here that banks and others will agree to contribute to the fund so that $100,000,000 can be subscribed outside the cotton producing states. Officials said tonight that, with this fund in operation; with more than $53,000,000 in Aldrich-Vreeland currency in the Southern banks, and with Federal Reserve system about to become effective, business men interested in cotton or other products could look for immediate improvement in general financial conditions.

AUSTRO-GERMANS ARE DRIVEN BACK

According to Word Coming From Petrograd.

GERMANS ADMIT DEFEAT

Petrograd, Oct. 28.—The following official communication was issued today from general headquarters:

"In the battle which has been in progress for four days south of the Pilitza river, in the forests on the line extending from the Bialogura to Glowaczow, Policzna and Janowiec, our troops have inflicted upon the Austro-German forces a severe defeat. Between the Pilitza and Glowaczow the heroic forces of our troops definitely broke down on October 26, the resistance of the 20th corps and the reserve guard corps of the Germans.

"On the center, after fighting of an extremely desperate character, we succeeded in establishing a firm foothold. On the border of a forest in the region of the villages of Adamoff, Severinoff and Marianoff.

"On the left wing we captured by assault a defensive position established at Policzna, and enveloped a portion of the Austrian troops near Berdzejo.

"On the night of October 27 the enemy's corps fell back in disorder towards the line between Edlinsk, Radom and Ilja. We captured both cannon and prisoners.

"On the right bank of the Pit it seems, on the front between Ijieoff and Novomiasto, to the fighting continues with the same desperation.

"In Galicia the battle is raging along the whole front of the river San. We have taken an additional ten officers and 500 men.

South of Przemysl our troops are advancing at certain points.

"In East Prussia the enemy has bombarded our positions in the operations in the region of Bakalarjevo. Repeated attacks have all been repulsed.

"The success which we have won to the south of the Pilitza and the result of which was the retreat of the enemy on the main front, is of the very greatest importance."

GERMANS ADMIT DEFEAT.

Word from Berlin Says That Forces Have Been Driven Back.

Berlin, via Amsterdam and London, Oct. 28.—The German and Austrian troops in Poland, according to an official announcement issued in Berlin today, have been forced to withdraw before fresh Russian forces advancing from Ivangorod, Warsaw and Novogeorgievsk after having repulsed all former Russian attacks.

ENVELOPING MOVEMENT CHECKED

Russians Not Only Break Up Plans of Austrians but Administer Defeat.

Petrograd, via London, Oct. 28.—The Austrian attempt to envelope the left flank of General Brussiloff, the Russian commander, according to a semi-official announcement today, finished badly for the Austrians.

On October 26 the Russians surrounded an entire cavalry division, together with some Landstrum troops, 14 miles south of Sambor and, with a few exceptions, annihilated them, capturing 20 guns and a train of ammunition."

TURKEY IS RECRUITING.

Reports Reach New York That Government is Crowing Her Army.

New York, Oct. 28.—Turkey is recruiting her army to the fullest capacity, even attempting to impress naturalized Americans into the service, according to passengers arriving today on the San Giorgio from Naples. Joseph Haddett, of Fernie, B. C., declared recruits had been enlisted in such numbers that there was shortage of uniforms.

"The military authorities not only are forcing into the army every available man," continued Mr. Haddett, "but they are seizing supplies and stores wherever obtainable."

BROKEN WHEEL CAUSES WRECK OF FAST TRAIN

Eighteen Hurt, None Seriously, in Accident on Chesapeake & Ohio.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 28. — Eighteen persons were injured, five seriously, when three Pullmans and a day coach of a Chesapeake & Ohio, Washington to Chicago, fast train, were derailed early today ten miles from Huntington. Two Pullmans rolled down a high embankment, all the injured being in these cars.

A broken wheel on the day coach is believed to have caused the accident.

The injured were brought here.

The most severely hurt were:

J. H. Blackwood, Huntington, three ribs broken.

E. T. Morris, Roanoke, head bruised, shoulder cut.

F. A. Cross, Indianapolis, back cut, hip bruised.

E. P. Turner, Woodstock, R. I., broken nose.

E. L. Edwards, Pullman conductor, Richmond; scalp wounds.

DR. CABELL BROWN IS CONSECRATED COADJUTOR.

Or Virgina at St. James' Episcopal Church in Richmond Yesterday.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 28.—Rev. Dr. Wm. Cabell Brown, of the Brazilian Missions, was consecrated as bishop coadjuter of Virginia today at St. James' church here. Among the participants were the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, of Missouri, president of the House of Bishops; Bishops Gibson and Randolph, of Virgina, and Kinselving, of Brazil.

JUST REASON FOR GIVING OF THANKS

IN HIS PROCLAMATION

Following Time Honored Custom President Wilson Designates Last Thursday November as Thanksgiving.

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Wilson today issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 25th, as Thanksgiving Day.

The proclamation, which refers to the fact that the United States is at peace while the rest of the world is at war, follows:

"By the President of the United States of America.

"A Proclamation:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn, in the fruitful autumn of the year, in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a Nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national Thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of charges which have disturbed the world also a year of special blessing for us.

"It has been vouchsafed to us to remain at peace, with honor, and in some part to succor the suffering and supply the needs of those who are in want. We have been privileged by our own peace and self control in some degree to steady the councils and shape the hopes and purposes of a day of fear and distress. Our people have looked upon their own life as a nation with a deeper comprehension, a fuller realization of their responsibilities as well as of their blessings, and a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among the nations of the world may come to be.

War Has Aided America.

"The hurtful effects of foreign war in their own industrial and commercial affairs have made them feel the more fully and see the more clearly their mutual inter-dependence upon one another and has stirred them to a helpful cooperation, such as they have seldom practiced before. They have been quickened by a great moral stimulation. Their unmistakable ardor for peace, their earnest pity and disinterested sympathy for those who are suffering, their readiness to help and to think of the needs of others, has revealed them to themselves as well as to the world.

"Our crops will feed all who need food; the self-possession of our people amidst the most serious anxieties and difficulties and the steadiness and resourcefulness of our business men will serve other nations as well as our own.

"The business of the country has been supplied with new instrumentalities and the commerce of the world with new channels of trade and intercourse such as the Panama Canal has been opened to commerce of the nations. The two continents of America have been bound in closer ties of friendship. Now instrumentalities of international trade have been created which will be also new instrumentalities of acquaintance, intercourse, and mutual service. Never before have the people of the United States been so situated for their own advantage or the advantage of their neighbors, or so equipped to serve themselves and mankind.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty sixth of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this twenty eighth day of October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty ninth.

"WOODROW WILSON."

AMERICAN COASTS ARE SUFFICIENTLY PROTECTED.

Says Congressman Sherley, Chairman of House Committee on Fortifications.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—The United States need never fear the result of any attack from the sea, according to Representative Sherley, of Kentucky, chairman of the House sub-committee on fortifications. In an authorized statement here today, Mr. Sherley declared the American coast is "so well fortified with the exception of two points, where work now is in progress, that an attack from the sea probably never will be made."

"The theory upon which the fortifications have been constructed," he continued, "is to protect important harbors from a direct attack by a hostile fleet. This has been done, except at San Pedro, Cal., where emplacements for guns are being built, and at the mouth of the Chesapeake, where land has been acquired and estimates shortly will be submitted for placing 16-inch guns along with other armament.

"Our guns are of the most modern pattern and are capable of destroying the most modern super-dreadnought."

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 28.—The American Iron & Steel Institute will meet here tomorrow in its annual convention. Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, and president of the institute, arrived tonight.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Reports today from the American commission in San Domingo indicated disturbed conditions on the island gradually were quieting down.

SYNOD OFFERS PRAYER FOR WARRING NATIONS

Sends Greetings to New Synod of West Virginia.

N. C. Presbyterians at Hickory Celebrate Sacrament of Lord's Supper and Hold Memorial Service. Committees Report.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Hickory, N. C., Oct. 28.—The Presbyterian Synod convened here this morning at 9 o'clock for the second day's session. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. C. Shive, of Wilson. Prayer was offered for the warring nations in Europe. The moderator then appointed a number of standing committees and Rev. W. McC. White was appointed a committee of one to send greetings to the new Synod of West Virginia.

Dr. W. J. Martin, chairman of the committee on schools and colleges, presented the committee report, which was adopted. This report showed total receipts and disbursements of $72,477 and called on the Presbyterians to appoint a permanent committee on this cause and request all churches to place it on the regular church budget so as to secure efficient patronage for all Presbyterian institutions.

The committee on foreign missions made their report, which was adopted. The report showed a total of 3,517 souls added to the church in the foreign fields and $561,179 contributed by the whole church for the work. In this connection Rev. E. W. Smith, D. D., Assembly's secretary of foreign missions, was heard in the interest of this great cause.

Synod then engaged in celebrating the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and afterwards held a memorial service for the deceased ministers. Four have died since the meeting of the Synod in Greensboro last year. They were J. E. Summers, H. F. Ellingwood, Carr Moore and J. A. Gilmer.

M. B. Spier, of Charlotte, was heard for ten minutes in the interest of the Laymen's Missionary Movement which convenes in Charlotte February 16, 17 and 18. He urged a full attendance at this convention, including pastors and laymen. He promised a rich programme, probably including an address by President Woodrow Wilson.

The Synod then took recess until 7:30 in order to give the committees time to work.

RATIFED TREATIES BEST WORK OF ADMINISTRATION

Daniels in Political Speech in Missouri Commends Stand Taken.

Farmington, Mo., Oct. 28.—Ratification of new peace treaties between the United States and twenty six other nations was held up as the crowning effort of the administration by Secretary Josephus Daniels in a campaign speech here tonight.

"I never knew of a fight between men if they allow a day or two to pass before seeking physical satisfaction after their quarrel" Mr. Daniels said:

"Now that we have these treaties with these nations, great and small, the possibility of war is reduced to a minimum; it is a safe prophesy that nobobdy living today will see the day when the countries engage in war with the United States.

"Public opinion is the great world lever of today and in the year which must elapse before a declaration of war, public opinion would crystalize against war and prevent a conflict. Next year will see an increase in peace treaties to include every civilized country. Arbitration has failed because it is compulsory."

Canadian Immigration Agent Who Blocked Hindus.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 28.—Malcolm Reid, of Vancouver, the immigration inspector who had charge of operations which prevented 400 Hindus from landing from the steamship Komagata Maru at Vancouver, has been transferred to the East. Several attempts to assassinate Reid have been reported.

STARVATION FACES JERUSALEM.

Those Dependent Upon Tourists for a Living—Thousands in Number.

New York, Oct. 28.—One hundred thousand inhabitants of Jerusalem are facing starvation, according to Samuel Edelman, American vice consul in that city, who reached here today on the steamer Ancona. For many years they have depended upon their earnings from tourists for money and the war has cut off all sources of subsistence.

LOSS MORE THAN $30,000.

Fire at Clarkton Belived to Have Been of Incendiary Origin.

Mr. J. W. Blomme, of this city, who returned from a trip up the Seaboard early this morning, stated that he saw Mr. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, who was returning home in response to a message informing him of the disastrous fire which occurred at Clarkton early yesterday morning. Mr. Clark was the heaviest loser in the fire, the entire stock of O. L. Clark Company, general merchants, having been burned. Mr. Clark was in Hickory attending the annual meeting of the North Carolina Presbyterian Synod.

Mr. Blomme said that Mr. Clark estimated his loss at $30,000 with only $7,500 insurance. While of course unable to announce definitely his plans for the future he expects to rebuild. He has been in business at Clarkton for 28 years and is one of the best known merchants in this section.

Mr. Blomme said that it is the general opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin. It is believed that the store was robbed and then set on fire. One of the strongest points leading to this belief is that the fire seems to have started near the oil tank for no one knew that the store was on fire until this exploded.

Young People Married.

Mr. John L. Bowen and Miss Louise Price were married last night at 9:30 o'clock at the parsonage of Southside Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. G. Hall. The bride formerly lived in Newport, Tenn., but has been living in Wilmington for some time. The groom is employed by the Atlantic Coast Line. Both young people have many friends here who will extend congratulations.

With large bombs from Zeppelins overhead bursting, and the shot of the wonderful 16-inch guns knocking over stone and brick buildings, thousands of families packed their goods and their children into carts and started out of the city over a pontoon bridge.

NEW HAVEN REDUCES DIRECTORATE BY TEN

Action Taken by Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

None of Those Now in Charge of Road's Affairs Were Directors of System When Action Taken Against It by Government.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 28.—The directorate of the New York, New Haven & Hardford Railroad was decreased from 27 to 17 members at the annual meeting of the stockholders today. The company pointed out in a statement that no member of the new board participated in the purchase of properties of the company about which there has been complaint.

Twelve members of the old board were re-elected. The new members are Benjamin Campbell, of New Haven, a vice president of the company; Frank W. Matteson, of Providence; Jos. B. Russell, of Boston; Eli Whitney, of New Haven, and Harris Whittemore, of Naugatuck, Conn.

These directors belonged to stand for re-election: Samuel Rea, of Philadelphia; D. Newton Barney, of Farmington, Conn.; R. W. Taft, of Providence, and J. S. Hemingway, of New Haven.

Of those re-elected, T. DeWitt Cuyler will represent Pennsylvania Railroad interests in place of President Rea.

MELLEN IN CONFERENCE.

With Assistant U. S. Attorney General at New York Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 28.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, and the government's chief witness in the grand jury inquiry into New Haven affairs, spent several hours this afternoon in conference with Assistant United States Attorney General F. M. Swacker. No announcement was made as to the purpose of the conference. The hearing virtually has been completed and when the grand jury convenes Monday it is expected it will be asked to vote on indictments.

for the allies all along the line. "Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received a serious check," said the cablegram.

The text of the dispatch follows:

"Of the army of the Duke of Wurtemburg and the Crown Prince of Bavaria, on a front opposed by one English brigade, 1,600 corpses were found.

"On the heights of the highway Des Dames, it is estimated that the number of killed and wounded Germans is about 2,000, although ours only reached about 100 men killed or wounded."

TO INTERN ALL RESERVISTS.

Canadian Government Will Keep Watch on Germans and Austrians.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 28.—Dominion government has decided to intern German and Austrian reservists who might become "useful" to their countries should they leave Canada.

The government will open regular registration offices where "persons of alien enemy nationality" must report.

Reservists not included in either of the two classes named are to be interned "as prisoners of war". These prisoners, while they will be under guard, will not be imprisoned in any penal institutional. Those who have wives and children dependent upon them will be permitted to live with their families in detention camps at government expense.

BITTER FEELING DISPLAYED

Between German and British Soldiers —French and Germans on Better Terms

Brussels, via London Oct. 28.—Evidence is reaching here daily of the extremely bitter feeling of the German soldiers against the British. Where Germans oppose the British the fighting is reported to be incessant.

Between the Germans and the French there is a more cordial feeling. Near Courtral the French soldiers in the trenches signalled a message to the opposing German soldiers:

"This is our colonel's birthday."

The Germans passed the word along the trenches and replied:

"We won't shoot much today; let the colonel enjoy the day."

Germans at Liege, Namur and Antwerp are restoring fortifications and repairing guns spiked by the Belgians. A number of Germans have been killed at Liege while testing the guns thus repaired.

WAR ONLY BEGINNING

Is Opinion of Former President of France in Published Interview

Paris, Oct. 28.—The war is only beginning, in the opinion of Armand Fallieres, ex-president of France. In an interview published by the France De Bordeaux today and transmitted from Bordeaux by the Havas agency, M. Fallieres says:

"Months and months will be required to overcome the military power of the enemy, but these do not produce discouragement in France. Our country has acquired the new virtue of constancy in effort.

"We shall certainly be victorious for, without reckoning our ardent patrotism and our inexhautible moral and material resources, we have on our side Russia and Great Britain, with their strength and tenacity, and Belgium as well as Servia, and, finally, we possess the moral support of entire humanity which loves the ideal of liberty.

"The right will not fail, and France will not perish. Should we sacrifice our last man and should we be compelled to call out our last reserves, I am ready to go. There is only one motto—absolute confidence."

WATER ROUTES GUARDED

Passages Through British Channel Kept Free Egom Mines by British

Flushing, Holland, via London, Oct. 28.—Water routes from the English coast to Dieppe, Boulogne and Calais are being guarded with the greatest care to protect shipping against mines and submarines. British cruisers escort all trawlers and mine sweepers. Torpedo boat destroyers and other small naval craft are all along the routes. British aeroplanes are also scouting constantly.

Four Belgian fishermen were killed near Nieuport in handling a mine that washed ashore.

FRENCH CLAIM ADVANTAGE.

Official Communication Declares That Germans Are Repulsed in Belgium.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight says:

"In Belgium two night attacks attempted by the enemy in the region of Dixmude have been repulsed. The German effort on the front between Nieuport and Dixmude appeared to be moderating. Our offensive continues to the north of Ypres.

"Between La Bassee and Lens there has been slight progress on our part.

"On the remainder of the front there is nothing to report.

"Attacks on different parts of our front, particularly at the north and south of the Somme and toward Berry-Au-Bac, were less important.

"Reports state that everywhere the enemy has received serious check. In the course of the day yesterday, as previously, the allied troops took a number of prisoners. In the region of the north an unknown number of mittrailleuses and cannon weer taken by our troops.

"In Poland the progress of the Russians continue. A very vigorous combat took place in the region of Jorzow-Rawa.

"In the direction of Nowo-Alexandria-Zevolen the enemy beat a retreat, leaving to the Russians fifty officers, 3,000 men and a number of mittrailleuses and cannon.

"To the south of Soletz the Russian troops crossed the Vistula, taking eight officers and 800 men.

"In the Carpathians the Austrians were thrown back on the railway, near Staromiesto-Turka. In East Prussia, violent German attacks were repulsed.

resentative Henry and Senator Hoke Smith talking about the South going to the bow-wows. None of the speeches amounted to anything except to advertise Smith, Henry and a handful of political followers. They retarded rather than helped the clearing up of the cotton problem.

Senator Overman has secured the transfer of Winfield S. Fletcher, railway mail clerk, from the Greensboro-Atlanta route to the Greensboro-North Wilkesboro route, and Wallace Galloway from the Atlanta-Greensboro run to the Asheville-Lake Toxaway assignment.

Charles H. Martin, private secretary to Senator Overman, stated today that the junior senator had appointed Henry Milford Alexander, son of Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Matthews, to a cadetship at West Point. The examination will be held some time in January or the first part of February. The alternates have not yet been named but it is believed that a son of F. M. Williams, of Newton, will be offered the first alternate. P. R. A.

tonight, adopted a resolution endorsing the proposed $135,000,000 cotton pool, and tentatively pledged the $2,000,000, which Arkansas banks are expected to contribute. Early in the day announcement was made that Arkansas bankers would not participate in the pool, but nit was explained tonight that this action was the result of a misunderstanding of the plans.

BANKERS TO MEET

Kansas City, Oct. 28.—A special meeting of the members of the Kansas City clearing house will be held here tomorrow to discuss the plan for raising a $135,000,000 cotton pool among the banks of the country.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Winter's first attack, which brought killing frosts and bitting temperatures to many parts of the country, vairtually had exhausted itself tonight. In the souht some unusually low temperatures prevailed today but warmer weahter was near. The frost line in the east extended as far south as North Florida.

KILLING FROSTS YESTERDAY

Freezing Temperatures Reported In North Carolina—Earlier Than Usual.

Silently as a thief in the night, unheralded except by Weather Observer Felger, who sighted it from afar, the cold wave struck Wilmington and vicinity Tuesday night with the result that a killing frost laid green vegeation low yesterday a full ten days earlier than is usual in this section. However, no great damage was done, for most of the summer crops have matured. Here and there a few beans were nipped and other garden truck was damaged to some extent.

Through the timely warning of Observer Felger and the Washington weather bureau, those who had flowers that cannot stand the frost were able to cover them or take them to shelter.

But Wilmington, true to her reputation, scored first in high temperatures of all the cities in North Carolina, the mercury only getting down to 34, two degrees above the freezing point. Lumberton reported a temperature of 29 and Asheville up in the mountains had 24. Other temperatures were as follows: Goldsboro, 29; Greensboro, 28; Newbern, 31; Raleigh, 32; Weldon, 27; Florence, 31; Cheraw, 29; Columbia, 34; Charleston, 40;. It is of interest to note that Asheville was the clodest place in the United States yesterday morning, according to the official report.

Coming so close upon a fall remarkable for its high temperatures, the cold weather here made a deep impression. There was a big demand for blankets Tuesday night and even then most of the people in Wilmington must have slept with cold feet for somehow the cover didn't seem to do much good.

The weather bureau said that temperatures would rise immediately following the cold snap and this proved to be the case. The thermometer last night at 8 o'clock registered 48 degrees. The maximum registered for the day was 56. Notwithstanding the forecast of warmer weather there was a big demand for stoves yesterday and it was not until late last night that the hardware people were able to fill all their orders.

MANY DUPLIN PEOPLE HEAR EX-GOV. GLENN

Makes Eloquent and Forceful Speech at Kenansville.

Takes Clinton Republican Editor to Task for Contradictory Statements. Endorses All Amendments. Praises Pres. Wilson.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 28.—A big Democratic rally and barbecue were held in Kenansville yesterday, when the large auditorium of the Duplin county court house was filled to its capacity to hear ex-Governor Robert B. Glenn speak in behalf of the Democratic party. H. D. Williams, chairman of the Duplin county Democratic Executive Committee, in a few words, said that Mr. Glenn was too well known to the people of this county to require an introduction, but that it was his pleasure to present to the people Mr. Glenn on the occasion.

Mr. Glenn delivered an eloquent address, first comparing the period from 1868, and when Mr. Russell was governor, up to the present time; comparing the prison records, banks, railroads, manufactures, schools, and everything in general, stating that from conditions that were a disgrace to the State the Democratic party and its officers had brought it up to a point where now, although there were some States that surpassed it in some respects, that all in all this State was beyond comparison with the others. In speaking of the educational problem Mr. Glenn paid high tribute to Dr. J. Y. Joyner, stating that in seven and a half years North Carolina had outstripped all the other States in educational advancement.

He also compared National affairs now and when the Republicans were in power, pointing out that the latter had failed in all of their promises, while the Democratic party had fulfilled all their promises. The only mistake they had made was concerning the free passage of vessels through the Panama canal, and that President Wilson, who is always on the alert, had called the attention of Congress to the mistake they had made in this respect, and that this was remedied in the proper way.

He pointed out the way in which some Republicans had given false ideas in regard to the party, rapping the News-Dispatch, of Clinton, in no uncertain manner, referring to two editorial paragraphs in which Tom Owen, the editor, had said in the first that the European war was responsible for the low price of cotton and tobacco, and the second, that the Democrats were responsible, exactly contradicting each other, and saying that one or the other was bound to be wrong, and asking which one to believe, and that if they were two exactly opposite statements, which they were, was either to be believed? He also added that tobacco was selling for as high prices now as it has done in any previous year, excepting 1913, which was a record breaker for price.

He stated that he believed that the war would prove a blessing, that he thought that it would cause the countries at war to be obliged to buy more from this country than they had ever done before, and that the other European countries, who were not at war, would look to us for more supplies, and that our trade would be built up in all lines.

He paid high tribute to the guiding hand of Woodrow Wilson, and severely attacked those who had said that the President was giving too much to the Catholics, stating that he had seen Mr. Wilson in Washington, and that he always had found him to be a devout Christian, and did not believe in the least that they were true, but the point upon which his most bitter attack was made was that religion was entirely too sacred a thing to be picked to pieces, and that this might be left alone by what few enemies the President might have.

Mr. Glenn paid high tribute to Senator Simmons and Congressman Kitchin, and said that they were doing great things for the State and Nation.

He spoke on the proposed amendments for a brief period, and was heartily in favor of each of them.

SIX STATES AND OVER 50 COUNTIES REPRESENTED

In Student Body of East Carolina Teachers Training School—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., Oct. 27.—Among the students enrolled in the East Carolina Teachers Training School there are 51 counties in North Carolina represented, and six states: North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Virginia. Every room in the dormitories has been filled and admission refused to a great number because they could not be accommodated.

Since the opening five years ago there have been enrolled 2902 students, counting no student twice in 12 months and the records show that 1312 have been refused admission because of lack of room.

The new model school was opened this fall for the first time. This school is a part of the graded school system of Greenville and hence is under the management of the superintendent of Greenville schools, but it is also a vital part of the Training School and is located on the edge of the Training School grounds near the town. The school consists of four grades. The teachers are members of the graded school faculty and the Training School faculty. In this school the student-teachers in the senior class observe and teach under the supervision of special teachers in the Training School.

The new members of the Training School faculty are Miss Martha Armstrong, of Birmingham, Ala.; teacher of domestic science, and Miss Hannah Palmerstock, Pennsylvania, teacher of piano. Miss Armstrong has had wide experience in teaching but comes directly from Teachers College, Columbia University, where she has been studying. Miss Palmerstock comes from Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md.

OFF FOR ANNAPOLIS.

A. & M. Heavy Eleven to Leave Raleigh Friday Night for Navy Game.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 27.—A. & M.'s heavy eleven, accompanied by a large crew of subs and officials of the team, will leave Raleigh Friday night for Annapolis where the team of the Navy will play the Red and White boys. This game is classed as a bigger game than either one of the games played this season, but is not considered as imbortant as the Georgetown game, which is to be played November 7th.

Fall. G. Tenney, fullback, who was injured in the game last Saturday with the University of West Virginia, will appear in the game. His knee is improved so that he can now engage in practice. Tenney and Van Brocklin are the life of the team, and were they out of the game, the chances for victory would be greatly decreased.

A. & M. has played three games this season, winning all and shutting out Wake Forest in the game October 3. The remaining games will be much harder fought on account of the superiority of the opposing teams. Washington and Lee will face the Techs November 26 at Norfolk; V. P. I. November 14, at Lexington, Va., and Georgetown November 7th.

The layman talks of sending from a million to two million men to the front as if it were about like sending a police squad to suppress a row among a lot of longshoremen. They never stop to think of plans for feeding them indefinitely, supplying them with clothing and blankets, and equipping them with modern guns, ordnance and ammunition without stint. It is awfully easy to talk about armies, without bothering about thinking of the system and equipment so absolutely necessary to make an army effective.

SUFFERED TWENTY-ONE YEARS ---FINALLY FOUND RELIEF

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE,
Rapides Par. Echo, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

No vodka, no fight.

"Teeth pulled without pain"to the dentist.

We are not prepared to fight but we have a habit of fighting whenever it becomes necessary.

What Carranza and Villa say about each other is probably what most Mexicans are prepared to believe.

King Cotton is in a bad way because his European allies are having a fight and he is the innocent bystander.

Frenzied financiers are in the cyclone cellar looking out. There are some times when opportunities are below par.

A magazine article on the "First Duty of a Husband" failed to mention that his first duty is to have a financial understanding with his wife every Monday morning.

A historian promises to furnish all the causes that brought on the war in Europe. Any attempt to do so now would get him into a controversy that would mean the publication of about a hundred other histories contradicting his.

"Why we are Fighting" is the title of an article written by a prominent government official of one of the belligerent powers in Europe. We read it but the article was more hysterical than historical, with the "why" entirely overlooked.

The Philadelphia Record (Democrat) insists that the tariff is not an issue in this campaign. Well, of course, it isn't an issue with the people, but it is a hopeful one with the special interests who want one more chance to get rich quick off the people. That is all the issue the tariff is.

Colonel Roosevelt still declares his determination to put down the political bosses. It rather impresses us that this is a fight of one boss against all the other bosses in the country. Since the Colonel is in the minority and all the other bosses are in the majority, he has taken a huge task upon himself.

Men have certain ideas about which they are willing to fight. Nations have policies about which they feel that it is necessary to go to war. With the United States the "Monroe Doctrine" is one, while in Europe the "Balance of Power" is another. The Monroe Doctrine means that we don't dare to trust European powers as neighbors, and the balance of power in Europe means that the powers don't dare to trust each other. Since they are suspicious of each other we are probably justified in being suspicious of them. Our suspicion is embodied in the Monroe Doctine.

If there is a demand in Europe for cotton, we can relieve the situation by finding a way to supply that demand. International exchange and ships to carry cotton would furnish the means to an end. If also we can create a demand for cotton and deliver the cotton on demand, it will help the situation. Our plans all along have been to hold cotton till crippled demand comes out of chaos on the other side of the Atlantic. Meanwhile ninety days of emergency seems like a decade. "Watchful waiting" and patience may verify the old saying that "all things come to him who waits."

Don't be too ready to condemn that Duplin county Republican who does not believe a gun has yet been fired in that European war and that the low price of cotton is due to the Wilson adminstration. He deserves more respect than the intelligent Republican leader who knows the biggest war in the world's history has closed the market for more than half the American cotton crop and still tries to make the people believe the low price is a result of the Democratic administration. There would be just as much sense in holding Wilson and his administration responsible for the war itself.

A FULL CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION.

The election next Tuesday is of vital importance for the reason that it is necessary to elect a Congress in full accord with President Wilson whose aim has been to give the country an administration in the interest of the people. North Carolina ought to elect ten representatives and a senator, all of whom are members of Congress. Both Houses constitute the Congress, and North Carolina should do the President the honor of sending him eleven backers for two more years of the splendid work his administration has done for all the people of America.

In this district it is assumed that every Democrat will vote for the Hon. H. L. Godwin, the Democratic nominee. The Republicans have nominated the Hon. R. W. Davis, of Southport, and while there is no possibility of his election, the Sixth district should give Mr. Godwin its full support as evidence that the party is holding its strong position throughout the counties of the district. If there is a falling off in the Democratic vote it will be our fault. We don't want to send our representative back to Congress with a decreased vote, however large his majority over Mr. Davis may be.

The one issue in this campaign is endorsement of the Democratic administration at Washington and the election of a Congress that will give us two more years of legislation in the interest of the people. There are no personalities in the campaign. It is simply a matter of parties, one ready to stand up to President Wilson and the other ready to combat him. Don't stay away from the polls on the assumption that the election of the Democratic candidate is a foregone conclusion. Every vote is needed, not to elect the candidate but to prove how strongly North Carplina endorses and stands by a Democratic adminstration at Washington.

Representtaive Godwin is entitled to the full Democratic strength of the district. He has been in full accord with President Wilson and has supported all his measures for the people, not because the President controlled Congress, but because Congress and the President agreed and had a common aim in bringing about the restoration of the National government to the people. Mr. Godwin has remained at his post of duty while Congress has been in session. Matters of great interest to the South have been daily considered, and Mr. Godwin has not deemed it wise to leave his post pending the efforts in Congress to relieve the distressed people of the cotton belt. Therefore he has not come home to make a personal canvass but has left it to the Democrats of the Sixth district to see that his interests do not suffer. However, we should say, our interests, the President's interests, the party's interests, for that is what is at stake.

The question is not whether the Sixth district will return its Democratic representative, but whether it will do so with a tremendous majority to evince the district's strong endorsement of Democratic government for the Nation. Be sure to vote for Senator Overman and Representative Godwin, both of whom have President Wilson's endorsement for faithful party service at Washington.

NOT A WAR OF AGGRANDIZEMENT, PROBABLY.

We take it that the Pan-European conflict is not a war of aggrandizement, but judging it from the point of view of the Allies it is for the suppression of militarism. We think it will go a long way toward crippling if not suppressing the militarism of all the belligerents, but as to that only time will reveal.

While the war is not one of aggrandizement, that may be one of the incidents in the finality. All along we have been sitting up and taking notice of events and eventualities, and early in the game we have noticed a disposition on the part of some if not all of the belligerents to seize all the territory in sight.

First of all, when Germany forayed into Belgium she set up civil jurisdiction wherever she controlled by military occupation. We don't know whether that means final annexation, depending upon the result of the war, or not. We are no prophet. Then came Russia with her occupation of Galicia in Austria, and before she considered that her forces might finally be driven out, she went to keeping house. She declared her purpose of annexing Galicia and two or three of the provinces belonging to Hungary.

How far our British friends have gone in the matter of territorial predilections we don't know, but the British papers have doped it out many times as to how German and Austrian territory would be divided up. These probably were merly irresponsible newspaper views—uninspired, probably. Anyhow, it has even been hinted that Italy is to be paid by giving her Trieste (Austria) in consideration of her "being good." Then again, Japan got busy and went after Kiao Chow, (German China) with a view to taking it away from Germany. German territory in the Pacific also has been seized by Japanese and British naval expeditions. Great Britain has seized Germany's African colonies, but we don't know whether the seizure has been of a purely pnuitive nature or for ulterior motives later to be disclosed.

Thus it will be noted that the territorial aspect of this war assumes somewhat grave proportions for Germany. Now they assume rather a grave aspect for some of her opponents. Recent events have brought even the United States some moments of concern, though we do not think it is serious enough to worry over just now. Anyhow, the bare possibility that Germany might win and take a notion to annex some of the American territory of Great Britain ("If"), is being widely discussed as an eventuality involving our "Monroe Doctrine". As to that the Baltimore Sun says:

"The question of the right of Germany to invade Canada is, of course, a purely academic one just now, for the reason that Germany has quite as much as she can do to take care of herself at home. Whether such an invasion would be a violation of the Monroe Doctrine would be for us to determine, if the time for such determination should ever come, which we trust never will. The Monroe Doctrine is an extremely elastic one, just as other doctrines of international application are, and there is no telling beforehand what case it might or might not fit. If we recollect aright, an intimation was conveyed to us during our war with Spain that France and Germany would not view with patience an invasion of Spain by the forces of the United States. Whether this would form a precedent for a similar protest on our part against the invasion of Canada it is not necessary to consider now. But it might have a certain bearing, in connection with the Monroe Doctrine, should the issue ever actually materialize."

As to all this talk about Germany's possible, but not probable, invasion of Canada we need not cross the bridge before we get to it. We will be so busy some of these days arbitrating the war that we need not bother about that remote possibility just yet. However, since they have all been talking territory and more or less taking it, the eventuality as to having Germany for a neighbor is a matter of grave concern, though as friends of all the belligerents we would have to admit that what is fair for the goose is fair for the gander in the matter of acquiring strange possessions. It should be more our concern to prevail upon all our European friends to be generous, whichever side wins, rather than leave upon us the impression that all are possessed of territorial avarice.

Finally, if it is to be a grab game, it is not for us to say who shall or shall not grab, but rather our duty to be in a position to appeal effectually to the generosity of those who are triumphant in a contest which all Americans, friendly to all the powers, most earnestly deplore.

WILMINGTON'S CORN SHOW.

The farmers throughout this section of North Carolina should keep in mind the New Hanover Corn Show to be held in Wilmington four days in November, beginning on the 10th and concluding on the 13th. Special efforts should be made to send exhibits of all kinds, since there not only will be regular prizes for the corn contest, but special awards for the exhibition of all kinds of farm products in the food and forage line.

The management of the fair recently issued an address through the Star, and it is presumed that extensive notice has been taken of it. The promoters have arranged to make the show a splendid affair, and while it is to be primarily a corn show and food crop exhibition, there will be an art and industrial exposition that will add to the interest and attraction of the affair. In reproducing the address published some days ago in this paper, the Fayetteville Observer devotes a leading editorial to it and introduces it as follows:

"There will be a corn show in Wilmington on November 10-13. The one held last year proved so much of a success that the promoters feel great confidence that this year the farmers will make still better exhibits. This show will be held in connection with the Industrial and Fine Arts Exhibition, and plans are being laid to make it an annual fair. We know of no class of agricultural products which need fostering so much as the cereals, especially in the South, and at this time, when we are confronted with the disastrous results of depending mostly on cotton. While New Hanover County has only a small area of farming lands, the adjoining counties can be drawn on, and Wilmington should have a fine fair. The soil in that section is fertile and very easily cultivated, while the farmers are using scientific farming methods."

The Observer's kindly and valuable interest in the show is appreciated, and it is needless to say that the press generally encourages such efforts for the reason that diversification of agriculture is a matter vitally essential to the future prosperity of this wonderfully versatile farming section.

COTTON ACREAGE MEETINGS

Georgia is to be commended in emphasizing the importance and necessity of cutting down the cotton acreage next year. The Governor of that state called upon the ordinaries of all the counties to call meetings of the farmers to take action and make pledges as to acreage reduction. Whether the meetings will be held immediately or later, a start in the right direction has been made.

However, the cotton growers of the South should act promptly in this matter. Indeed action should have been taken before this. We know of nothing that would have had such a powerful effect on the price of cotton ,or that will prove such a material factor in affecting the price of cotton in the future, as early agreement throughout the cotton belt as to the matter of curtailing cotton acreage next year. The earlier we have the agreement the earlier the effect will be had.

Judge A. W. Graham, in the House of Representatives, during the extra session of 1913, fought to the last ditch to have the proposed tax amendment worded just as he thought it ought to be and failed to get it shaped up just exactly as he desired, but he announces that he will support the ten amendments just the same. He realizes that the tax amendment represents the composite best judgment of many able and patriotic Tar Heels with varying views and that where so many men of different minds and representing such varying interests and sentiments have a hand in framing a document, there must be some compromise, some "give and take." Each individual can not have it exactly to his notion.

Turkey still has a glimmering idea that Egypt is hers, but Great Britain has had Egypt under her wing so long that she thinks Turkey's idea is absurd. Egypt is Turkey's territory but Great Britain proposes to keep on running it for Turkey but specially for everything there is in it for Great Britain. China will find out that her territory under the jurisdiction of Germany, France, Great Britain, Russia and Japan is not hers any more than Egypt is Turkey's. How long has it been since the United States darkened the "open door" in China?

A man who is prejudiced cannot be expected to be fairminded. Honest men who are ignorant of the facts unfortunately are not in a position to be fair minded. A jury would not dare to render a verdict before hearing all the facts and sifting them out of the evidence, yet the average man on a street corner will express an opinion without knowing the facts. Many won't even change their opinion after learning the facts, because they are controlled by prejudice. "A man convinced against his will clings to his opinion still."

CURRENT COMMENT.

Mr. H. P. Barnes of Route 3 from Fairmont was in town Friday. Mr. Barnes says the land owners, or a part of them at least down his way, say they are going to furnish only the cotton seed for fertilizer for their tenants next year, and are going to make the tenants give them all the seed made next year.—Lumberton Robesonian.

Is any member of the Legislature pfepared to guarantee that ten or fifteen millions or thirty-five millions of dollars in South Carolina five per cent. bonds can be sold now at their face value? Where is the Representative or Senator with such faith in the issue that he would contract now to buy $5,000 of the bonds in October, 1915, at par? There are among the legislators some men of large means. If the bond issue should be passed and ratified by the people and it should result in adding ten millions of dollars to the public debt, and some voter inquires in 1916, "What has the State to show for the trebled State debt?" what will be the reply of the men who voted the bonds? If the bond issue should be voted and should result in trebling the State debt, what would be the reply in 1916 to the question of a railroad conductor asking, "What benefit did we conductors derive from the bonds?" Holf the white population of South Carolina have only the labor of their hands.—Columbia State.

Of far greater consequence to us and to other neutrals than are the quibles over the nationaly of certain steamers, which recently changed flags, is the assumption of Great Britain and other belligerent Powers of the right to regulate, limit and direct neutral trade. The commercial blockade as a war measure is obnoxious enough; and neutrals have hitherto insisted upon the maintenance of a blockade line as a condition of respecting the closure of the coast and ports of a belligerent to access by their ships of commerce. Great Britain has not only failed to establish a blockade line along the German coast, but she has coerced other States, which are too weak to oppose her, into closing their land frontiers against commerce with Germany. This is an extension of the "right" of blockade which ought not to be tolerated by the law of nations. Neutrals are thereby in effect made partners of Great Britain in a commercial war conducted against a State with which they are at peace.—Philadelphia Record.

Now that the convulsions are subsiding we might ask attention to John Temple's bale. It was placed in the lobby of the McAlpin and artistically placarded: "Buy a Bale and Help the South." A Charlotte merchant who knows something about cotton pulled out a sample and found it "stains." It was a 1912-13 bale and had been bought from a broker at seven cents. A little calculation will show how much benefit the Southern farmer got out of that bale. And there was the philanthropic old lady with a fat purse and a soft heart for the poor farmer, who got Wanamaker to buy a bale for her. That bale was also bought from a broker in New York around seven cents. The broker got the money and Johnnie, he got the advertising. New York was full of instances of the kind and while the spirit which prompted it is to be admired, yet that spirit was born of the sentimental and mistaken idea of the South's beggarly condition. It was too much like passing out alms to some pitful object of charity—which the South never has been and never will be—and it was this sort of stuff against which the pride of our people was moved to revolt. It has been a season of hysteria the like of which the South will pray to be delivered from in the future.—Charlotte Observer.

If farmer boys are like city boys a great many of them consider themselves the superiors of their sisters intellectually. If they had such a high opinion of themselves they are likely to be shocked occasionally by discovering that girls can compete with boys on an equal footing and often win. Reports from pig and canning clubs in South Georgia are showing that girls are making records that any boy would be proud to call his own. Litie Miss Clea Hiscock, aged thirteen, took second prize in the Brooks county pig raisers' contest, showing a lot of boys what a girl can accomplish even when she turns her hand to something that is supposed to be boy's work. Miss Blanche Young of Brooks county and her fine record as a member of a canning club are inspiring. On one-tenth of an acre she made a yield of 1,626 pounds of tomatoes and did all her canning without permitting it to interfere with her school work. She made a net profit of $37.58, which, if she could have done as well on a whole acre, means that she would have in the bank as the result of her labors the very comfortable sum of $375.80. It is not likely that she could have made that profit on one acre, but what she has accomplished is an indication of what a farmer might expect to do if he made a serious business of growing and canning tomatoes.—Savannah News.

ITCHING IRRITATION.

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Relieved by Inexpensive Treatment

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting, greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleansed and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. Drug Store are selling a liberal-sized jar at 25c, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it.

TO ADVERTISE FOR BIDS FOR HARBOR OF REFUGE

Government Plans to Begin Project Within Year.

Specifications Already Prepared for Mammoth Breakwater Which Will Cost More Than Three Million Dollars.

Bids for the construction of the harbor of refuge at Cape Lookout will be advertised for within the next few days, Maj. H. W. Stickle, United States District Engineer, stated yesterday upon his return from Washington, D. C., where he went the first of the week to confer with the Board of Engineers with reference to this project. The estimated cost of this project is $3,526,000, of which $800,000 has been appropriated and $600,000 authorized. This makes available for beginning the work $1,400,000.

The appropriation for the harbor of refuge in the rivers and harbor bill recently passed by Congress was omitted but it was understood that this would be included in the next bill. It was the understanding that only such appropriations would be made at this time as necessary to continue the work on government projects already begun until next March by which time it is expected that Congress will be able to make all needed appropriations.

The decision of the Washington authorities was reached after taking into consideration the fact that by the time the contracts for beginning the construction work could be awarded Congress will likley have provided the necessary funds. The bidders will be given 45 days in which to prepare their bids after they are advertised for. It would then probably be 60 days or more before the contracts could be awarded. The law requires that work shall begin within six months after the government awards its contracts. If the present arrangements work out as it seems most probable work should begin on the project within the next ten months or within a year at the outside.

Contractors will be asked to submit bids for constructing the entire project and also for doing as much work as has been already provided for by Congress. This latter amount is $1,260,000 as $140,000 will be reserved for contingent expenses.

All the necessary surveys have been made and the specifications were completed over a year ago and filed with the chief of the Board of Engineers so that the advertisement for the bids only remains to be made.

The object of the project is well known, it being to provide a harbor of refuge for ships which may be in the vicinity of Cape Hatteras and Cape Lookout in stormy weather.

WILL SPEAK TO STUDENT BODY

Dr. C. W. Stiles to Deliver Address at High School This Afternoon.

Dr. C. W. Stiles will deliver an address in the auditorium at the High School this afternoon at 1 o'clock when he will give the student body some valuable advice and information based on the results of the medical inspection and mental tests of the school children of the city and county, conducted during the past year and a half.

Dr. Stiles has been in close touch with the High School, as well as the other public educational institutions of the city. For the past several seasons he has made the physical examinations for the members of the football squad, and has given the players much valuable advice on training matters.

His address this afternoon will be one of much educational value, as well as of considerable interest, and the students will hear him with pleasure. The address will be open to the public and all who are interested are invited to atend.

This will probably be Dr. Stiles' last public speech in Wilmington until next summer, as he leaves the later part of the week for Washington, where he will be stationed this winter.

TO TAKE COTTON IN PAYMENT.

Overall Manufacturer Will Take 5,000 Bales at Ten Cents.

Hamilton Carhartt, a large manufacturer of overalls, has sent out announcements to the Southern trade statting that he will take 5,000 bales of cotton at ten cents a pound in payment of obligations already made for goods bought from him by merchants, it being understood that the merchant pay the farmer ten cents for his cotton. To the merchant who wants to buy Carhartt overalls and is afraid to buy for fear he can't meet his invoice when due, he offers to sell him overalls and take cotton in half payment of the invoice at ten cents per pound until further notice.

Every bale of this cotton will be shipped to his cotton mills in South Carolina, where it will be converted into overall cloth. Mr. Carhartt owns and operates a 1,000-acre plantation adjacent to his million dollar South Carolina cotton mills and he has instructed his mills to pay the tenants on his plantation ten cents for every bale raised this year, regardless of how low the price goes.

While the headquarters of this concern is in Detroit, Mich., factories have been established in the South for the manufacture of denims to be used in making overalls.

Hurt by Falling From Scaffold.

Mr. Walter Croom, a tinner, suffered a severe scalp wound and a number of bruises on other parts of his body yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock by falling a distance of 20 feet when a scaffold on which he was standing broke. The accident happened on Orange street between Ninth and Tenth. Mr. J. M. Hall, the druggist, passing by a few minutes later saw him and notified his brother, Mr. J. L. Croom, who came with his automobile and carried the injured man to his home at No. 819 South Front street. Dr. J. B. Cramner rendered the necessary surgical aid. Mr. Croom is 23 years old and is married.

For Saturday Afternoon.

The invitation to the public to call and inspect the Murchison building has been changed to Saturday afternoon, instead of Sunday afternoon as was first announced. The handsome new building will be open for inspection Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the three high-speed elevators will be operated to carry the callers through the building and to the top, where a splendid view of the city and surrounding section can be had.

NO MEETING OF COUNCIL

Absence of Three Members Prevented Holding Regular Weekly Session Yesterday Morning.

Lack of a quorum through the absence of Councilmen W. F. Jones, B. A. Merritt and T. W. Wood prevented the regular weekly meeting of City Council from being held yesterday. Councilman Jones was out of the city, attending the Cape Fear at Fayetteville. Councilmen Merritt and Wood were understood to be in town, but did not show up at the meeting.

Mayor Moore, Councilman Loughlin and Councilman Chadwick were at the hall and waited nearly half an hour, Mayor Moore finally announcing that there would be no meeting on account of the fact that a quorum was not present.

Councilman Loughlin, who was a few minutes late in arriving, on noticing that the other members were not present, stated that he had a telephone message from Councilman Merritt 10 minutes before 10 o'clock, stating that he would attend the meeting. He did not show up however, and no further message was received from him.

Quite a number of citizens had assembled to bring various matters before Council.

It was said yesterday that a special meeting might be held tomorrow morning, to take action upon the question of changing the dates of the notes to be given in payment for the improvement of Market street from 10th to 17th. This action, it was understood, would be brought up yesterday, but it developed that even had a meeting been held it would have been necessary to postpone it until the bonding company had consented to the change in the plan of payment, as proposed in the resolution introduced last week by Councilman Chadwict, whereby instead of waiting until the completion of the contract and then turning the notes over to the paving company, the notes would be given in advance, the company allowed to dispose of them, and turn the funds over to the city to be deposited in the local banks and paid out as the work progresses.

City Attorney E. K. Bryan ruled that if the change in the plan of payment was made without the consent of the bonding company, it would probably relieve the bonding company of any responsibility in the event that the contract should not be completed.

WHO WAS IT GOT CUT?

Police Department up Against Baffling Mystery.

Somebody is reported to have been cut in an affray on Front street between Dock and Orange last night at 8 o'clock but who it was that was cut or who did the cutting, if any was done, is a profound mystery and the united efforts of the members of the police department failed to unravel the intricacies of the circumstances surrounding the fight that is said to have taken place. A hurry-up call was sent in to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for the ambulance by somebody—his name is also unknown—and in response Dr. G. E. Bowdoin and the driver broke all the speed laws of the city in getting to the place where the cutting is reported to have taken place.

When Dr. Bowdoin reached the scene he was unable to find any trace of an injured man, though he was told that somebody had been cut. He reported the matter to Policeman O. V. Thompson, who had just come on duty and went back to the hospital. There may have been witnesses to the affray, if so their names are unknown. It is said that the injured man came from one of the government dredges. One man was found last night who said that he knew who did the cutting, but he refused to divulge his name.

BEFORE THE RECORDER

Herbert Johnson, White, Charged With Assault While a Convict.

After having been discharged from the county convict gang on Tuesday upon the completion of a sentence of 18 months for larceny by trick, Herbert Johnson, white, was immediately arrested on a charge of having shot at Messrs. J. D. Croom and J. M. Hayes while they were on a raft at the rock quary in East Wilmington. Johnson at the time was a member of the quarry gang. According to the evidence brought out in the Recorder's court yesterday a guard, who is not now in the employ of the county, gave Johnson the gun and told him to chase the boys off the pond. The case was continued until today.

Rebecca Hall, colored, was found not guilty of a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Willie Faries, colored, charged with cruelty to animals.

MEETING IS POSTPONED

Health Department Probing Committee Will Meet Tomorrow.

A meeting of the committee investigating charges of inefficiency and extravagance, made against the Health Department by members of City Council, called to be held in the Mayor's office this afternoon at 3 o'clock, has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon at the same place and same hour.

The meeting was postponed at the request of Councilman Merritt, who informed Chairman J. Allan Taylor, of the investigating committee, that he could not get the commitee from City Council together this afternoon. Councilman W. F. Jones, on the committee, was out of the city yesterday, and will also probably be away today.

AFTER ANOTHER LINE

Local Men Working for Steamers Between Here and Baltimore.

Officials of the Wilmington Dock & Storage Company are working to bring another steamer line to Wilmington. An effort was made to get the Baltimore & Carolina Company to make Wilmington a port of call, but the management of that company is still undecided, and the local men are now endeavoring to interest another well-known Baltimore line.

It was stated yesterday that petitions have been signed by practically every shipper on the wharf, urging a steamer line between Wilmington and Baltimore and pledging a large part of their business to such a line.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: New Hanover Transit Company and Jno. W. Harper to Henry A. Grady, for $100 and other considerations, Lot 10 in Block 7, Carolina Beach; A. G. Ricaud, commissioner, to J. W. Yates, trustee, for $450 and other considerations, lot on east line of Wilson street, 132 feet south of Nun street, 33x66 feet in size.

ASK PATRONS TO CO-OPERATE

Postmaster Green Working for Installation of Private Mail Receptacles in City.

Postmaster H. McL. Green, who is working energetically on the problem of improving the service of the local postoffice, and, among other things, is asking the co-operation of the patrons of the city delivery routes in carrying out the suggestions of the Postoffice Department that private mail receptacles be provided to obviate the necessity of patrons responding to the carrier's call at inconvenient moments.

This co-operation on the part of the patrons of the city delivery service is urged, not only on the ground that it will decrease the inconvenience to the householders in removing the necessity for personally answering the call of the postman, but will also enable a better and more efficient service, in that it will enable the carrier to cover his route in much less time than under present conditions and will reduce to a minimum the amount of mail returned to the office because of the temporary absence of those in the house or the failure to get a prompt response to the carrier's ring.

The following circular letter is being delivered to all the patrons who receive their mail by the city carrier service:

"To the Householder:—The Postoffice Department invites your attention to the benefits to be derived from the use of private mail receptacles. Such receptacles, in the form of a box or a slot in the door, obviate the necessity of patrons responding to the carrier's call at inconvenient moments, permit the safe delivery of mail at all times, and contribute materially to the efficiency of the service. When not compelled to await a response to his ring, the carrier is enabled to cover his route more expeditiously and make prompter deliveries, especially to those residing near the end of his route. With a safe place in which to deposit the mail at all times the carrier is enabled to reduce to a minimum the amount of mail returned to the office because of the temporary absence of patrons or failure to get prompt response to his ring.

"Your prompt attention to this matter will result in improved service to your entire community and be appreciated by the department.

"Respectfully,
"H. McL. GREEN,
"Postmaster.

"Note.—No particular style or make of receptacle has been approved by the department, and the postmaster and his subordinates are not permitted under any circumstances to act as agents in the sale of boxes."

DELEGATES TO SYNOD.

Important Gathering of Lutherans in Columbia Next Month.

The United Synod of the Lutheran church of the South will be held in Columbia, S. C., this year beginning November 10th. It is expected that there will be more than 200 clerical and lay delegates in attendance.

Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, is a clerical alternate and Mr. J. H. Rehder is a lay delegate from Wilmington.

Buys at Winoca Terrace.

Among the deeds filed in the office of the Register of Deeds within the week, one of especial interest conveys from the Southeastern Realty Company to Mr. Geo. L. Tillery a lot at Winoca Terrace on 13th street. Messrs. J. G. Wright & Son say that Mr. Tillery has purchased one of the handsome new residences recently completed at Winoca, and will make it his home within the next few weeks. Mr. Tillery holds an important position in the freight traffic department of the Atlantic Coast Line, and has a host of friends in the city and elsewhere.

SPEAKS TOMORROW NIGHT

Hon. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, Will Deliver Campaign Address at the Court House.

Hon. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, a leading lawyer of the Queen City and one of the most eloquent and forceful orators in the State, will deliver a Democratic campaign address in the court house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, and it is expected that a large audience will be present to hear him discuss the issues to be passed upon by the people in the general election next Tuesday.

Jos. W. Little, Esq., chairman of the county Democratic Executive Committee, received a telegram from Mr. Morrison yesterday, stating that he would arrive in Wilmington on the late Seaboard train tonight and would remain in the Pullman until morning.

Arrangements will probably be made to take Mr. Morrison for an automobile ride over the city or to the sound during the day, and other entertainment features may also be arranged.

Mr. Morrison has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for Governor and it is known that considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon him by his friends toward getting his consent to be the State's Democratic standard bearer two years hence. However, he has stated definitely that he will not be in the race in the next campaign. His friends still predict that he will yet be Governor of North Carolina, however.

He has been an active worker in the ranks of Democracy for many years, and has exerted no small influence in behalf of the party's platforms, not only, in his own section, but throughout the State as well.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to be present tomorrow evening and hear Mr. Morrison, and those who accept the invitation may be sure that their time will not be wasted. The members of the County Democratic Executive Committee and other prominent party men are expected to be present.

FIRST LYCEUM NUMBER AT ST. ANDREW'S TONIGHT

Alkahest Trio Will Present the Initial Entertainment of the Season.

The first number of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood Lyceum Course will be given at the Memorial Hall tonight at 8:30 o'clock, and judging from the large advance ticket sales, a large audience will greet the initial entertainment, which will be presentel by the Alkahest Trio.

The Alkahest Trio is well-know throughout the South for its high class and atractive programmes. Miss Eileen Beatty possesses a lovely siprona voice of unusual purity and range and has studied under the greatest vocal masters of the country. For several seasons she was leading soprano soloist at the Metropolitan Temple concerts at New York. Her beauty and attractive personality combine to make her a charming stage presence and her work will fulfill the hightest expectations of all music lovers.

Miss Cora Cawthon is one of the most brilliant readers doing lyceum work, being expecially good in her impresonations of children and in negro and Italian dialects, bird songs and humerous sketches.

Her manner is natural and entirely free from affectiation, and her selections are always carefully and appropriately chosen.

Miss Mary D. Gally is a talented violinist and accompanist. She has already made a brilliant record as a finished artist, and her lyceum work is winning for her new laurels and much praise. He violin selections are rendered with a dilicacy of touch and feeling that never fails to bring forth aplause from the audience.

The doors will be open to ticket-holders this evening at 8 o'clock. Admission at the door to those not holding season tickets will be 50 cents.

The interment will be in the family burying ground near Oak Grove cemetery.

A SMALL MESSAGE

Can be told in a small space, but a large store has a large message to tell—always!

A New Principle in Complexion Treatment

Most creams are injurious when used habitually. They clog the pores and eventually form a permanent, soggy, stifling film which interferes with eliminative action and makes the skin sickly and pasty. There is an application—mercolized wax—which acts upon an entirely different principle. While perfectly harmless, it has the peculiar property of removing by absorption the dead and half-dead particles of scarf-skin, as well as unhealthy matter in the pores. Thus it takes away from instead of adding to the complexion, differing in this respect from cosmetics. The result is a perfectly natural and healthy young complexion. Mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

The correct principle in the treatment of wrinkles is to tighten the skin, which naturally irons out the lines. A face bath, remarkably effective in this direction, may be made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hasel.

MR. G. A. MEACHAM WEDS IN FAYETTEVILLE TUESDAY.

Friends in the city yesterday learned with much interest and pleasure of the marriage of Mr. George A. Meacham, of Wilmington, and Miss Josephine Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Alexander, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Fayetteville Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Watson M. Fairley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Fayetteville. During the ceremony Miss Nina Andrews, of this city, played softly "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell.

The home was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers. The wedding was very quiet, only the members of the family and a few close friends being present.

They returned to Wilmington on the afternoon train and will make their home at Ninth and Princess streets. The bride formerly lived in Wilmington and her many friends here are glad to welcome her to the city again. She is a young woman of charming personality. The groom is a young business man of fine ability and is with Swift & Co.

MISS KILGO ENTERTAINS TRINITY COLLEGE FRIENDS.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 26.—Miss Fannie Kilgo, daughter of Bishop John C. Kilgo, of Trinity College, delightfully entertained over 30 of her college friends Saturday evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Mildred Sinclair, of Carthage, N. C., a member of last year's graduating class. The entertainment was held at the Kilgo home on the college campus between the hours of 8:30 and 11.

Miss Kilgo and Miss Sinclair greeted the guests as they arrived and Miss Irma Tapp conducted them to the punch bowl, which was charmingly presided over by Mrs. Claude West. An interesting contest was held, following which Miss Kilgo invited the guests into the dining room where a delicious ice course was served. The dining room was decorated in ferns and cut flowers, the soft candle light making the room especially beautiful.

The couples were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Claude West, Miss Mary Berry and Mr. Garland West, Miss Catherine Thomas and Mr. David Fuller, Miss Edna Taylor and Mr. Raymond Smith, Miss Loraine Isley and Mr. D. C. Lewis, Miss Willilette Evens and Mr. Joe Davenport, Miss Iris Chapelle and Mr. Earl Sykes, Miss Fannie Vann and Mr. Ben Few, Miss Katherine Bain and Mr. Hugh Isley, Miss Erma Tapp and Mr. A. W. Wilson, Miss Jessie Persinger and Mr. Beal Slier, Miss Amy Russell and Mr. H. A. Maddox, Miss Janie Couch and Mr. Charles Bagley, Miss Ella Tuttle and Mr. Ed Shore, and Miss Amy Muse and Mr. R. L. Blanchard.

BRIDAL PARTY ENTERTAINED AT ELABORATE BANQUET

One of the most elaborate pre-nuptial events of the Taliaferro-Brand marriage, which will be solemnized this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, was a banquet given at the Hotel Wilmington last evening by Mr. Robert H. Breese, of Raleigh, in honor of the bridal party. Covers were laid for 30 persons, and the handsome dining room was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, the color scheme being yellow and white.

The banquet began at 9:45 o'clock, and it was not until midnight that it was concluded. Those present drank to the health of the bride and groom elect, and several made impromptu talks. The affair was a most enjoyable one in every way.

Those present were: Misses Madge Brand and Etta S. Brand, of this city; Jane Hyde, Charleston, S. C.; Meta Rountree, Florrie Northrop, Nora Corbett and Pauline Blanding, of this city; Cora and Sue Duffie, Sumter, S. C.; Mary Wells, Columbia, S. C.; Lula Taliaferro, Charlotte; Rosa B. Duffie, Sumter, S. C.; Mrs. J. G. Bryce, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Little, of Wilmington; Messrs. A. M. Schoen, Atlanta, Ga.; Robert H. Breese, Raleigh; Carol and Thomas Taliaferro, George Thomas and John Hoff, Charlotte; Alex. Dick, Hartsville, S. C., and John Murchison, William Parsley, Champ Davis, Lawrence Davis and Harry West, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Little entertained the bridal party at a delightful tea, at the Cape Fear Country Club yesterday afternoon.

FORMER WILMINGTONIAN WEDS FLORIDA GIRL.

The following from last week's Sanford (Fla.) Herald will be of interest to many friends here, the groom having formerly resided in this city:

"A home wedding of unusual beauty was that of Miss Genie Wicker and Mr. Norman Cary Toole, which took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride. The attractive rooms were delightfully adapted to such an occasion, with their high ceilings, the wide hall, opening on the broad veranda, enclosed with palms and quantities of goldenrod and softly lighted by yellow shaded lanterns.

"The colors of the wedding were green and yellow, artistically carried out, with quantities of yellow flowers. In the hallway entwined in the graceful vines of the white star jessamine were the cosmos flowers, forming a screen and archway, through the center; tall vases of daisies and large ferns completed the charming effect. The drawing room, in which the ceremony took place was all in white, with the bellshaped datura flora bundi banked on the mantel. Palms and bamboo gave a relieving touch of green. In the bay window was an exquisitely beautiful altar of white, festooned with the graceful asparagus plumosa. Upon the altar a profusion of white carnations added a touch of beauty and charm. Silver candlesticks held the white candles whose soft radiance lighted the room. The kneeling cushion was of white satin, exquisitely embroidered, the gift of the maid of honor. The decoration of the dining room was quite in keeping with the beauty of the other rooms, for here, from the corners and sides of the rooms, were ropes of the spengeria fern, meeting in the center and drooping gracefully above the table upon which was a handsome cover of Battenburg over yellow silk, centered by a basket of alamanders. Masses of the yellow alamnders filled the mantel and corners of the room. Suspended from the chandelier was a golden heart, pierced by an arrow.

"Preceding the ceremony Miss Florence Frank at the piano and Miss Margery Boor on the violin rendered very beautifully the 'Berceuse' from Jocelyn. As the bridal party entered the hall, the 'Bridal Chorus' from Lohengrin was played, and during the ceremony 'Traumerei'. At the close the melody of Mendelssohn's wedding march filled the rooms. The bridesmaids and groomsmen, Miss Rebecca Wicker with Mr. M. M. Gregg, Miss Mary Chappell with Mr. Pope Wicker, entered first, passing through the hall to the drawing room. They were followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. O. K. Lewis. The maid of honor, Miss Julia Wicker, walked alone and immediately preceding the bride who entered with her father, was the little flower girl, Rose LaVerne Hurt, scattering yellow rose petals in the path of the bride.

"The bride was met at the altar by the groom and the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Steinmeyer.

"The bride was very lovely in her graceful wedding gown of white charmeuse and point lace. The bodice was of lace with the charmeuse laid on with French knots and pearl passementerie. The charmeuse fell in a tunic that was cut away from the front over a ponited flounce of lace. A sash of charmeuse with a smart bow and wide ends confined the fullness at the waist. Over the long train fell the veil of tulle edged with lace, which was becomingly worn in cap effect and caught in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

"Miss Julia Wicker's frock was of soft white crepe de chine and rich silk shadow lace, with low cut bodice and sleeves of lace over silk chiffon, garnitured with pearl beads. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

"The bridesmaids were daintily gowned alike in yellow crepe de chine, with over skit of Oriental lace falling over a ruffle of accordion pleats. The bodices had short sleeves caught on the shoulder with pearl ornaments. They carried arm bouquets of white roses.

"The little flower girl was very sweet and winsome in a long white empire gown and yellow ribbons. She carried a basket of yellow rose petals.

"The bride's mother was gowned in grey messaline.

"Mr. and Mrs. Toole left on the morning train for Jacksonville and South Carolina, from whete they will go to Philadelphia to make their future home.

"The bride's going-away gown was a smart tailored suit of dark blue wool poplin. With this was worn a blouse of blue crepe meteor, hand embroidered, and a stylish black velvet hat with white wings and silver ornament.

"Mr. Toole is a young man of sterling qualities, connected in business as insurance inspector with the Transportation Mutual Insurance Co., of Philadelphia. His bride is a charming and popular girl, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Wicker."

BRILLIANT WEDDING EVENT AT SOUTHPORT YESTERDAY

Southport, N. C., Oct. 28.—All society in Southport was astir today. For weeks the event that was consummated here today at high noon has been looked forward to with the keenest interest, and everything went to make this event—weather beautiful, relatives and friends alert with helping hands and loving hearts—all that any bride could wish for. The Pepper-Godfinch wedding this grand October day was an event exceeding the fondest hopes of those personally concerned.

Long before the hour named for the ceremony, the Methodist church was thronged. There was almost a cry of delight as each one came into the church, which had been transformed into a scene of floral beatuy, vines, leaves, flowers, woven and interwoven, designs that appeared as though growing, and to make it more effective, the auditorium had been darkened, and with the arrangement of electric lights, there was an added splendor of beauty. An arch of green, in the centre a wedding bell, above the bell an arc of immense chrysanthemums, was placed where the ceremony was performed. Back of this the organ and singer were concealed, but heard.

It was near high noon. The organ's first notes hushed the great gathering, and very soon was heard the words of the song "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," sung by Mr. H. E. Goodwin, Miss Connie Piver accompanying on the organ. This was soon gollowed by Mendelsohn's wedding march, and down the main aisle came the bridal party, the flower girls, little Misses Lillie Augusta Martin and Mildred Eloise Daniel, strewing the bride's way with flowers, the maid of honor, Miss Eva May Goldfinch, preceding, and being followed by the bride, Miss Jewell Vernon Pepper, on the arm of her father, Capt. Louis J. Pepper. On the side aisles, the bride's maids, Misses Lila Mae Chinnis, Irma Fern Davis and Nora Irene Northrup, and ushers, Dr. H. L. Keith, Messrs .P. O. Leggett, Hugh D. Ward, Junius W. Davis and Mr. Wm. S. Davis, completed the bridal party, all gathering before the arch at the chancel, meeting the groom, Mr. Arthur K. Goldfinch, and his best man, Mr. Leon F. Yates, Darlington, S. C. The ceremony of marriage was performed by Rev. A. S. Maxwell, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. C. M. Lance, of the Methodist church.

From the church the party went in automobiles to the home of Captain and Mrs. Pepper, where an elaborate luncheon was served under the supervision of the bride's sisters, Mrs. M. Mrs. Goldfinch left by auoto for Conskinner, of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. J. W. Thompson, of this city. Mr. and lillies of the valley and bride roses. way, S. C., and after a tour visiting friends and relatives, in South Carolina, they will make their home here.

At the church, the bride wore a gown of white chameuse and old lace and long veil, carrying a bouquet of lillies of the valley and bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore pink crepe de chine and cream lace and carried carnations. The maid of honor wore a gown of white crepe de chine and old lace. The flower girls were in accordion pleated crepe de chine with pink ribbons. The ring ceremony was performed.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. W. T. Goldfiinch, Mr. A. E. Goldfinch, Miss Maye Goldfinch, Conway, S. C., Miss Lila Chinnis, Phoenix.

At the home of the bride the number of gifts testified to the love of relatives and friends.

THEATRICAL

Kleptomania is the theme of Carlyle Moore's farce "Stop Thief", one of the big shows of the season, which comes to the Academy Saturday, matinee and night.

A kleptomaniac is defined by Webster as "a wealthy person of extraordinary absent minded tendencies and morbid impulses." The mania usually demonstrates its presence by the victim of it being discovered in making a collection of valuable articles that do not belong to him. When a poor man is caught doing the same thing he is looked upon as an ordinary thief.

There are two kleptomaniacs and a real crook in "Stop Thief". One of them is a millionaire, and the other is his prospective son-in-law. The bride-to-be is aware of her father's predilection for stealing, but is ignorant of the fact that her future husband is so afflicted.

Into this household a real thief is smuggled by a new maid, and the plot thus tangled in the first act calls for the presence of a battalion of policemen and the thrills begin. One valuable after another disappears in the most mysterious manner, and in the search for the culprit many funny situations are evolved.

Bert Leigh as the "Thief" and Miss Hazele Burgess as the maid, in part his sweetheart hold the audience in a maze as to what they will do next.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," which is a play founded on the book by John Fox, Jr., and which has been read by more than three million readers, comes to the Academy November 5th.

Eugene Walter, who wrote the play, reproduces the very spirit and atmosphere of the people and scenes so graphically pictured by Mr. Fox, while a scenic production is made that is said to eclipse any form of production made for any play of its kind before. The role of June will be taken here by Eleanor Monteil, an actress whose finished work on the stage has already brought her a goodly measure of fame. Miss Montell is associated with the New York Company, each of whom has been selected with an eye single to the actor's respective capabilities for playing a particular role. The production is in every way one of the biggest made in years.

"Perils of Pauline"—Bijou.

After the triumphs of yesterday at the popular price photoplay house, they come right back again today with one of those famous five-reel shows that hove set the pace in Wilmington, and demonstrated the fact that for "the most of the best for the least" there's no place in it with the Bijou.

While ordinarily, when one of the big serials are presented there is only room for two additional pictures on the bill, the management for today have crowded in three big pictures in addition to a two-reel installment of "The Perils of Pauline," making a grand total of five reels—a cent a reel.

"The Perils of Pauline" as the story progresses, gets even more interesting and thrilling every issue, the ingenuity of the one of the country's most noted scenario writers being requisitioned for the best he has to offer in the war of "Pauline's perils." Hiss Pearl White has scored great honors since she began the lead in this great serial, and is every week getting even better in the portrayal of the difficult and dangerous role.

Then there's a rousing Crystal comedy, featuring that popular screen star, Miss Vivian Prescott in the leading role. It is antitled "Oh, You Gypsy Girl," and depicts the result of an exchange of clothing by a loving couple with a couple of Gypsy fortune tellers.

Then there's a big Joker comedy featuring Ernest Shields, of the Lucile Love serial, with Eddie Boland and Phil Dunham. It is "On Again—Off Again—Finnegan," The fifth reel is a mammoth Keystone comedy hit.

At The Orton.

For this afternoon and evening it is indeed a delectable menu in the picture line that will be served up together with good things to drink, at the Orton Confectionery. The picture for the day, another mammoth three-reel Warner Feature release, is entitled "Children of the West," and is a powerfully thrilling drama of the great Western frontier, produced by the great Miller Bros., 101 Ranch, the most famous producers of Western features in the country.

Seen in the leading roles of this big feature are Miss Elsie Albert, with little Baby Early, the most famous child actor before the screen. Real Indians by the hundreds take part in this dramatic feature, and it is well worth any one's time (and that's all it costs) to witness it.

Red Letter Day at the Grand.

Now for "The Patchwork Girl of Oz" the most fantastical, the most intensely interesting and the most stupendously spectacular film ever presented, being the moving picture version of L. Frank Baum's famous whimsical extravaganza, that set New York in a whirl and that is still a popular success. It is a magnificent Paramount and being such, and of so much worth, why, of course, the theatre that will offer it in Wilmington is bound to be the Grand. There today will be presented this brilliant film, which is a story of the day when there were magicians and things were queer and uncanny. It is a great screen triumph, one the children will especially enjoy, as well as the grown-ups and therefore the children should by all means be carried to the matinees at the Grand. This great Paramount, just out, will be offered by the Grand for two days, as it is felt that one day will not be sufficient to accommodate all who will desire to behold it. Therefore it will play a two-day engagement and performances will commence each morning at 11 o'clock, and the admission will be the smallest ever charged for the big film—10 cents for adults, but the same old 5 cents for children, afternoon and night.

A notable cast of players will be seen in the production, as the Paramount concern will tolerate none other.

Big New Bill at Victoria Today.

The mid-week change of show goes on at the Victoria this afternoon, followed by the usual two performances tonight, and it is going to be the largest yet offered, as well as one of the greatest. One act alone is presented by five players and it is an act that features the cleverest juvenile actor on the American stage. It is the well known big time act of "Billy's Santa Claus", offered by J. C. Lewis, Jr., and Company and it is something most novel and elaborate. The Charlotte Observer gives this act particularly high praise and referring to the children in the act sets forth that "the manner in which the kids 'pull' the stuff is worth going a long distance to see." This is only one of the headliners of the new show, however. There are plenty of others, including the noted Novelty Collins, who appear in a skilled and daring jumping act, something out of the ordinary and that will prove a delightful innovation. Still another star for the now show, one whose fame is wide, is Harry Sterling, who does an exceptionally clever juggling act and intersperses it with some select musicad numbers. And yet another one. These premier entertainers, Brown and Spencer, appear and will immensely delight all.

Of course, in addition to this big vaudeville offering there will be two new reels of pictures and swell numbers by the Victoria's superb orchestra.

U. S. STEEL CORPORATION HAS RESTED ITS CASE

Government Will Conclude Its Rebuttal Today

Lawyers for the Big Corporation Predicts Another War in Which Germany Will Battle for the Commerce of the World.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—The defense rested today in the Federal suit to dismember the United Steel Corporation as a trust and the government began its final attack against the big organization. John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, summed up for the defense in a two hour speech. Jacob M. Dickinson, counsel for the government, addressed the court in rebuttal. He expects to conclude tomorrow.

Mr. Johnson declared the weight of the evidence was all against the government. No one had been harmed by organization of the steel corporation, he said, so far as the record showed.

Mr. Johnson predicted another war after the present European conflict, a war in which Germany would battle for the commerce of the world and in which the steel companies in the United States, if the corporation were disintgrated, would be as pigmies.

Mr. Dickinson replied that never has a great corporation brought into court that it did not hide its head in the claim that to strike it down would be detrimental to the best interests of the public. He produced testimony to show that, by merging competitive companies, the corporation had unduly restrained trade and competition. If it had done nothing unlawful after its organization, he added, the government still would have prayed for dissolution on the ground that its formation was illegal.

Charging that the corporation sold products cheaper abroad that at home, Mr. Dickinson said the American consumer should have been given advantage of the lower prices. Failure of the corporation to give that advantage, he continued, was evidence that it conspired to maintain excessive prices.

CAPE FEAR FAIR HAS ENCOURAGING OPENING.

Some Remarkable Exhibits of Diversification—Robeson Leads in Hogs.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 28.—The Cape Fear Fair opened here today with a big street parade to the fair grounds from the principal streets of the city. The attendance was excellent for the opening day and the prospects are bright. Despite the hard times, the management is very hopeful as to the success of the "Seven County Fair."

The exhibits are very good—the best that have ever been shown since the founding of the fair 59 years ago. Diversity in agricultural products seems to be the keynote this year. The striking exhibit of one farmer consists of a model of a ship bearing practically every variety of product that can be grown in the climate, including even a box of cigars alongside of which was a plug of chewing tobacco grown on the farm. This display is made by Mr. W. C. Fields, of Cumberland county. The cigars were made by his son, W. C. Fields, Jr., from tobacco grown by himself.

Capt. J. Marshall Williams, also of Cumberland, has 202 varieties of agricultural products on exhibit. In agricultural hall there are shown every kind of forage used with the single exception of alfalfa. Everyone of these varieties is grown right here in Cumberland county, too.

The cotton showing, of course, is fine. The tobacco exhibited is very creditable, especially considering the fact that not until this year was tobacco raising taken up seriously. Especially is this true of Cumberland, which shows most of the weed. The corn exhibit is very elaborate, though the ears are displayed by a system of racks introduced from the West, and which have never been used in this part of the country before, that shows up the corn in such a way that it has to be practically perfect to make a good impression.

In the live stock division the exhibits of cattle and hogs are good, while sheep, which have never been shown before, are coming to the front. Robeson county makes the best showing in hogs, their effort in this respect being far above the other counties.

FAYETTEVILLE RACES.

Free-for-All the Feature of First Day's Card at the Fair.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 28.—The free-for-all for Cumberland and adjoining counties was the feature of today's card at the Cape Fear Fair races.

V. Eden, with his trotter, Lucella, used heretofore as a buggy horse, defeated some cracking good horses, all of them from Cumberland, except J. W. Bryant's Maud T., from Rowland. Gentry Dictator got second money. The 2:14 pace was taken by Cuba Dillon, driven by Homer Jamison.

Summaries: Free-for-all, Cumberland and adjoining counties, purse $300, Lucella, driven by V. Eden, won; Gentry Dictator, Boswell, second; Prince Norval, W. H. Eden, third; Maud T., Bryant, fourth; best time, 2:24 1-4.

2:14 pace, purse $300; Dillon, Jamison, won; Charmward, Boswell, second; Crystal, Louis Corbin, third; Montague, Wiggins, fourth; best time, 2:19 1-4. Attendance at fair today excellent for an opening day; bright prospects.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT TO BUY COTTON TWINE.

Jute Has Always Been Used, But a Change is to be Made.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A quarter of a million dollars worth of cotton twine for use the coming year by the Postoffice Department probably will be bought soon, it was said today at the department, where bids for mail wrapping twine were opened.

The bids showed proposals for jute twine were ten cents a pound and for cotton 13 cents, but department officials think cotton will be cheaper because of its greater yardage.

Jute has been used exclusively for years, as Southern representatives recently brought to the attention of Congress.

—Divorce proceedings were started in Superior Court yesterday morning by Mrs. Hattie Bagwell against Oscar Bagwell. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

GROUNDED DESTROYER IS DEEP DOWN IN SAND

Little Hope for Floating the Paulding.

Several Other of the Fleet of Destroyers Anchored in Lynnhaven Bay Washed Ashore But Got Off. Storm Was Severe.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 28.—Resisting all efforts made to float her today, the torpedo boat destroyer Paulding, which went ashore in Lynnhaven Inlet during a severe gale Tuesday morning, is tonight buried in six feet of sand.

The auxiliary cruiser Panther and the naval tugs Hercules and Massasoit endeavored to float the stranded craft today, but did not move ner any nearer deep water.

Divers sent down to examine her bottom found that she was buried in the sand. Powerful submarine blow pipes and pumps were taken to the scene today by a crew from the navy yard and efforts will be made to blow the sand from around the Paulding, with the hope that she can be floated. Naval men say it will take an unusually high tide to float her.

There is considerable doubt expressed in marine and naval circles as to the probability of ever floating the Paulding. She is held fast between two sand bars and is sinking lower and lower in the sand. The Panther has a line made fast to her, but is afraid to pull on the little craft for fear that her frail frame will not stand the strain. A part of the Paulding's crew were taken on board the Panther today. All of the crew will be sent to the receiving ship Franklin while efforts are being made to float her.

When the torpedo boat Juett was placed in dry dock today it was found that she had lost one propeller and broken another. The Burrows was damaged midship and had a hole stove in her side above the water line. The Fanning and several other destroyers lost anchors in the storm.

The Paulding, Cassin, McDougal, Cummings, Drayton, McCall, Burrows, Patterson, Ammen, Trippe, Fanning, Jenkins, Beale and Juett were at anchor in Lynnhaven Bay when the storm struck them. The wind reached a velocity of 70 miles an hour and several of the destroyers lost their anchors. The Paulding was driven steadily towards the beach.

The Burrows and Juett were also driven on the beach but got off. The little boats could make no headway against the storm and were all in danger being driven on the sand bars.

SPECIAL OFFICER SHOT AND SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

While Attempting to Arrest Hoboes at Greensboro—Southern Employe.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 28.—R. J. Allen, Jr., a Southern Railway special officer, was shot and seriously wounded last night at 1 o'clock while attempting to arrest two hoboes who were found beating rides on a train then standing on the company's yard here. He was carried to St. Leo's Hospital and has been in a critical condition since the shooting. The men who did the shooting escaped, but later Matthew Iddings, negro, was arrested. Two shots were fired at Mr. Allen, both taking effect, one in the side and the other in the stomach. The injured man had been in the employ of the company several months as a special officer and is well known in the city, where he has lived all his life.

After the shooting Mr. Allen was able to walk several yards to the station, where he quickly told of the affair and then collapsed. Several policemen were dispatched to Pomona by automobile and the train was stopped there. A careful search failed to disclose the men wanted. This morning Iddings was arrested and was identified by Mr. Allen.

ABOUT HALF THE TOWN OF CLARKTON BURNED

O. L. Clark Store and Others Destroyed by Fire

Early Morning Blaze Consumes Big Stock and Burns Seaboard Depot and Warehouse—Total Losses.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Oct. 28.—When the citizens of Clarkton were awakened this morning about 3 o'clock by the loud noise of an explosion, they found the big store of the O. L. Clark Company almost entirely wrapped in flames. The entire building and the immense stock, the largest in this section of the State, were quickly and totally destoryed, and only partially covered by insurance on building and goods. Mr. O. L. Clark, president and largest stockholder in the company, was at Hicktory attending the North Carolina Presbyterian Synod.

The flames spread from the Clark store and destroyed the Seaboard Air Line passenged depot and freight warehouse, the agent, Mr. Huffham, being unable to save even his office records. The store owned by Dr. Clark and occupied by W. S. Clark Company also was destroyed with the stock the latter amounting to $1,500.

Another house of Dr. Clark's, occupied by John Smith as a market, was burned, as was also the warehouse of D. J. Clark.

By hard work the flames were stopped on the east at the new brick drug store, this building being a good new one and of brick made it possible to save the rest on that side of the street.

The store of N. A. Currie & Co., and the stable of E. J. Cox & Co., both were in great danger much of the time.

The O. L. Clark Company's building seems to have caught from the inside somewhere near the back part of the store, where there was a large tank of kerosene oil, and also a tank full of compressed air which was used for lighting purposes, and as soon as this exploded the flames enveloped the entire building so quickly that not even were those present able to open the door. This entire building and everything in and near it was a complete loss.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look Years Younger! Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful — all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Just Lift the Receiver off the Hook

THE Bell telephone is so simple that a child or servant or blind person can operate it as well as you can. Just lift the receiver off the hook and a trained operator responds instantly, prepared to render efficient service such as only human intelligence can produce.

In the dead of night you can use the Bell telephone, and even if a light is not convenient you have the assurance that the operator will respond when you lift the receiver from the hook.

Recently burglars who entered a Jacksonville, Fla., store accidentally knocked the Bell telephone receiver from the hook and the intelligent operator failing to get a response, called the police and notified the owner of the store.

Such human service as this makes the Bell telephone an indispensable business asset and an invaluable protection for the home.

STATE CAPITAL NEWS AND GOSSIP OF A DAY

Southern Savings Bank at Wadesboro is Closed.

Too Great Long Time Loans, Too Much Re-Discounts and Bills Payable. Justice Act Under Fire. in Next Legislature.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—The Southern Savings Bank, of Wadesboro, N. C., voluntarily suspended operations today, it was announced at the office of the State Corporation Commission. The suspension was due to decrease of deposits and inability of the bank to realize on long term real estate loans.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—The Southern Savings Bank, of Wadesboro, was closed this morning by the Corporation Commission and State Bank Examiner S. A. Hubbard is in charge until there is a receivership established or other steps are taken for adjusting the affairs of the bank. J. W. Gulledge is president and W. P. Ledbetter cashier. The assets and liabilities of the bank at the last quarterly report in September aggregated $122,430, the capital stock being $25,560, and the deposits $52,333.

The bank's trouble is attributed to undertaking to carry too great long time loans and too much re-discounts and bills payable, these representing $41,000 borrowed money. A recent falling off in deposits rounded out the complications that forced closing of the doors of the bank.

The knowledge the Corporation Commission has of the affairs of the bank constrains the commission to give assurance that the bank will in all probability be able to meet all its obligations and take care of its depositors in full.

An amendment was filed today for the charter of the Patton-Stickleather Livery Co., of Asheville, changing the name to the Millard-Patton-Stickleather Co.

To Address Teachers.

Miss Margaret A. Haley, of Chicago, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly on Friday of Thanksgiving week when the assembly will be in annual session in Charlotte. She is business representative of the Chicago Teachers' Association and a member of the committee of the National Educational Association on salaries of teachers, her special work being the pressing of the campaign throughout the country for more commensurate salaries for the teaching profession.

Prices of Cotton Seed.

The weekly report of prices of cotton seed in the counties constituting the North Carolina cotton belt issued today shows prices being paid to the farmers ranging from $15 to $20. Prices at typical points in different sections are: Washington $15 to $17; Newbern $15 to $17; Clarkton, $16 to $17; Wilmington $18 to $20; Maxton $16.66 to $19; Goldsboro $16; Scotland Neck $15 to $16; Clayton $16 to $18; Wilson, $17 to $18; Raleigh $15; Concord $15 to $16; Gastonia $15 to $17; Statesville $17 to $19; Laurinburg $16 to $18.

Justice Act Under Heavy Fire.

No State law will be under anything like as heavy fire during the session of the Legislature in January and February as it is clearly evident now that the noted Justice intrastate freight rate act will be. Every day new and yet bigger guns are being trained on this clearly marked measure and while there will be no repeal it is being freely predicted that there will be changes galore by the time the measure has fully run the gauntlet of the 1915 Legislature and the demands that will pour in for amendments and adaptations to the advantage of the shippers, the short line carriers and the big systems, all of whom have developed grievances against the Justice act.

The independently owned short line railroads have their committee at work preparing for an advance on the Legislature demanding relief from the effects of the long and short haul clause that has deprived these lines from any share in competitive intrastate traffic through the elimination of long haul competition with lines having the direct short line to given shipping points, insistence being made now that these independent roads built to give towns they serve competitive freight service are deprived of such volume of freight as to necessitate their operation only at great loss. There are 34 of these independently owned roads in the State operating 782 miles of road and representing investments aggregating $12,000,000, and they will make a mighty formidable force when they come to the Legislature with their demands for relief which can only come through the elimination of the long and short haul clause from the Justice Act. With them, too, will be joined a great force of the shipping interests of the State. These railroad companies have a special committee at work now planning the campaign for legislative relief.

Then there is the elimination of the commodity rates as violations of the long and short haul clause protests agianst which are coming up from shippers in every section of the State; the wholesale increases in rates in those shipments that go distances between five and the next highest numeral of mileage so that seven mile shippers for instance pay the ten-mile rate and 57 mile shipments bear the 60-mile rate, whereas, under the old rules seven miles would bear the five-mile rate and 57 miles the 55-mile rate and so on all the way to the 100-mile shipments. These are a few of the biggest alleged inequities of the Justice Act and there are many others that will be subjected to legislative and lobby fire during the approaching 60 days session of the Legislature.

Notable Appeal Argued.

An especially notable appeal argued yesterday before the Supreme Court was that A. D. Ivie vs. L. F. King, Mr. Ivie being a prominent lawyer of Rockingham and member of the State Senate, and Mr. King the editor of the Weekly Courier, Leaksville, Senator Ivie having procured in the trial below a verdict for $1,500 damages in a libel suit. The case was argued by former Governor Kitchin for Editor King who appealed and Senator Ivie was represented by Thomas S. Bell, of Greensboro. The alleged defamatory article published December 17, 1913, was denunciatory of Senator Ivie, A. L. Brooks and C. O. McMichael, as counsel for B. F. Mebane in a suit brought against him by the Leaksville-Spray Institute. There were enumerated 24 features of the article, which was signed by King, as libelous. The suit by Senator Ivie was for $25,000 and the jury gave him $1,500. T. J. Betts, also connected with the Leaksville paper, in which the article was published, was also included in the suit, but the jury allowed no damages against him.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 28.—At a meeting of the Republican executive committee held here yesterday, the following candidates were named for the district and county offices: For Senator, 11th senatorial district, F. M. Stevens, of Boardman, to oppose Donald MacRackan, Esq., of Whiteville, Democratic nominee; for representative to oppose J. R. Williamson, Democrat, J. D. Maultsby; for treasurer to oppose T. E. Barden, Democrat, H. M. Bullard; for county commissioners, M. A. Bordeaux, W. R. Oldham and K. L. Stanley to oppose R. E. L. Brown, K. B. Council and John B. Cox, Democratic nominee, and they nominated for surveyor, J. D. Long, and for coroner, L. Baggett, for which office no Democrat had been nominated. They did not name a candidate to oppose the Democratic nominee for solicitor, Homer L. Lyon, Esq., nor for the office of clerk of superior court, register of deeds, sheriff, road commissioners or county judge. They endorsed Porter Hufham, independent candidate for county attorney.

WILSON NEWS NOTES.

Tobacco Sales Continue Heavy—Many Grist Mills Sold.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 27.—With half a million pounds of tobacco on the warehouse floors Monday and as much more today, this week promises to come up with last week. Buying was brisk and the prices remain satisfactory to the farmers, who stand about and watch the bidding buyers.

One of the representatives of a Wilson firm selling machinery states that he sold ten grist mills at the State Fair in Raleigh and has received 35 additional inquiries. His exhibit at the fair was exceedingliy profitable.

It is reported that fully 5,000 people attended the services of the Black Creek Primitive Baptist Association Sunday. The services were held at Lucama and many were present from Wilson. Among the visiting ministers were. Elders W. N. Tharp, Indiana, J. B. Rowe, Baltimore, Isaac Jones, Maple Hill, N. C.; J. T. Coats, Coats, N. C.; J. A. Herndon, Durham; E. E. Oliver, Washington, D. C.; J. W. Gardner, Goldsboro, J. S. Corbett, Greenville; F. H. Peed, Suri, N. C.; and G. M. Corbett, Greenville.

WORK IS GOING FORWARD

On Washington's Electric Light and Water Plants

Washington, N. C., Oct. 27—The work of construction, on Washington's new electric light and water plants is progressing rapidly, and the contractors hope to have the work completed, and the plants in operation early in the coming year. The power house, pumping station, filter plant, and reservoir are situated on the North west suburb of the city, and only a short distance from Tranter's creek. The waters of this creek will be filtered and used for the city's consumption. The entire plant will be strictly modern and complete in every detail, and when completed will be one of the best and most costly plants of its kind in the State. The city is also having a very complete and efficient system of sewerage installed at the same time.

FRENCH TRAITOR SHOT BY HIS COMRADES

This monument was photographed on the battlefield near Rheims in France. It shows the French treatment of spies found in their own ranks. The victim, a French soldier, was found during the engagement about Rheims signalling to the Germans the positions of French guns. He was at once arrested and tied to a stake erect. A squad of soldiers fired at him, and he slipped down a limp mass at the foot of the stake. They did not bother to bury him.

SENATOR OVERMAN TO BE HEARD AT MAXTON TONIGHT

The Only Speech of the Campaign There—Little Interest in Politics.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 28.—Senator Lee S. Overman will deliver the opening and closing address of the present political campaign at the town hall here Thursday night. This will be the only effort made by either party to awaken interest in politics here.

From careful questioning it seems that all of the amendments will carry here with the possible exception of the seventh, which will be voted "No" by quite a number. There is no interest being taken in these any more than in the general election.

AVOID DEMORALIZATION.

Of Cotton Business—Plans Discussed at Dallas by Business Men.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 27.—Plans to avoid demorpliazion of the cotton business when the Federal banks open November 16th, were discubsed here today by a committee representing the Texas Bankers' Association.

Cotton men have told the bankers they fear farmers will be too eager to get rid of their cotton when the reserve system opens.

FIRMER TONE IN SPOT COTTON

Advices Received From The Cotton Belt By Broker in New York Indicate Better Feeling.

New York, Oct. 28.—Today's advices from the South indicated a firmer tone in the spot cotton situation. Local brokers reported that offers from the southwest shows an advance of from 1-4 to 1-2c. for the recent low levels at some interior Texas points. This improvement was atributed to a partial withdrawal of offerings and increased activity of exporters to fill Oct. angagements. The more cheerful view of the situation was encouraged by the announcement of the detailed plans for the $135,000,000 cotton financing pool, and the appearance of further frosts in the belt.

It was estimated that approximately 85 per cent. of the entire belt had experienced killing temperatures during the past 48 hours. Some authorities thought the damage sufficient to justify a reduction of nearly half a million bales in estimation of the yield.

At a meeting today of the conference committee with members of exchange having contracts open with Liverpool it was decided to ballot on no cotton here and to cable a protest to Liverpool against permitting spinners to buy on call there without releasing straddle accounts in New York.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Increased Movement in Exports Causes Better Demand for Spots.

New Orleans, Oct. 28.—An increased movement in exports caused a better demand in spots today with the result that in the afternoon, January contracts traded at 7.20, a new high level for the week, and spit prices were advanced one eighth to 6 5-8 for middling.

Total foreign exports for the day were 31,592 bales, making exports for the week thus far 85,267 bales, or about 10,000 bales more than was exported all last week. A feature of the export statistics was the clearance of 18,995 bales for Japan. Spot cotton steady. Sales on the spot 382 bales; to arrive 1,250.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, Oct. 28. — Cotton seed oil made a substantial gain early today on export rumors and covering of shorts, but later reacted some 7 to 17 points under selling by refiners and bear pressure. CONDITIONS NEARING NORMAL

Foreign Exchange Hardened While Purchase of Supplies for Export Increased—Cotton Loan.

New York, Oct. 28.—Foreign exchange markets showed little change today, aside from a slight hardening of rates on London and German financial centers. There were large offerings of bills, in consequence of further extensive purchases of supplies for export. Competent brokers think exchange on London, so far as it affects practical purposes, now is almost normal. Financial interests profess to see in the increasing outflow of merchandise and foodstuffs to the belligerent nations vastly more than a mere adjustment of exchange. They declare that if exports are maintained at their present high level for the balance of the year, American obligations across the water will be changed to credits, and the present menace of liquidation of American stocks by Europe be automatically dispelled.

Advices from New England and Western points indicate another hitch in consummation of the cotton pool. Banks in those sections hesitate to give their approval, it is said, unless financial institutions in the cotton growing states show their ability to contribute their share—$35,000,000—without increasing their loans at this and other reserve centers.

For the first time in several weeks, the banks showed a fairly large loss of cash to the sub-treasury on the known money movement. It was not believed, however, that last week's satisfactory bank statement, with its restored surplus, would be seriously disturbed.

An increasing demand for money for mercantile purposes was reported here and at other prominent commercial centers, the most seasonable weather having given an impetus to many lines of business.

An echo of conditions in the steel industry was heard in further deferred or suspended dividends and the weekly reviews of trade authorities, which state that the prospects is far from encouraging. Almost the only branch of the business thus far benefitted by the war is barbed wire, for which many new orders have been received.

More gold was transferred to Ottawa today in further payment of debts arising from the city loan note issues.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Oct. 28. — Cotton goods markets were steadier today. Print cloths were stronger and higher. Piece goods sold well at the carpet auction; some rugs sold lower. Underwear and hosiery were quiet. Sweater yarns were in better demand.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

RESINOL CURED AWFUL ITCHING IN ONE NIGHT

New York.—"The skin on my hand got red and rough. It itched and I began to scratch it. It itched so that sometimes I could not sleep all night. I was suffering very much. I used ——— salve and ———, but they did not seem to help me. This went on for six or seven months. Then I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. I used them one night. In the morning, to my surprise, my hand was all well and the trouble has never returned. This is the absolute truth."—(Signed) Miss Celia Kleinman, 61 Columbia St., April '26, 1913.

Nothing we can say of Resinol equals what others, such as Miss Kleinman, say of it. It does its work quickly, easily and at little cost. If you are suffering from skin trouble, why don't you try Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For trial size, free, write to Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists.

MINER'S LAMP CAUSED FATAL GAS EXPLOSION

Forty-Seven Bodies Have Been Removed at Royalton.

Lives of the Dead Were Sacrificed to Save Three Hundred Others Scattered Throughout Mine—Air Pumps Reversed.

Royalton, Ill., Oct. 28.—The disaster at the Franklin coal mine near here yesterday, which cost a half hundred lives, was caused by the explosion by a miner's lamp of a pocket of gas located the night before by a mine inspector and marked dangerous. Forty-seven bodies have been removed from mine and at least three other miners are missing.

A large proportion of the dead were sacrificed to save the lives of nearly 300 others in more distant workings. Reversal of the air pumps saved 285 miners scattered among the galleries, but doomed those in the zone of the explosion, who were trying to reach the air shaft.

These facts were brought out today when the near completion of rescue work made investigation possible. The cause of the explosion was discovered by members of the state mining board. The immediate cause of the death of those who perished was learned from the statements of Leo Bellamy, a miner who escaped through the air shaft, and James D. Brown, mine manager. The coroner's inquest began this afternoon.

SPORTS

TIGER ELEVEN WILL PLAY TEAM FROM FORT

Local Football Aggregation to Meet Soldier Lads From Caswell.

What is expected to be one of the hardest fought football games of the season will be played at Sunset Park next Saturday week, on November 7th, between the local Tigers and the strong 19th Company team from Fort Caswell. The Tigers have only played one game this season, this being with the local Highs. The Highs have one of the strongest teams in their history, and barley managed to pull through the game with the Tigers, who out-played them at some stages of the game.

The have been hard at work practicing since the High game, and have increased about 100 per cent. The probable line up of the Tigers will be as follows:

Center—Lews.

Guards—Davis, Farmer, Farrar, Mercer.

Tackle—Johnson, Quinlivan, Shaw, Burnett.

Ends—Shannon, Shore, Taylor.

Halfbacks—LeGwin, Myers, and Siefert (Coach.)

Fullback—Laugheridge and Watts.

Quarter—Shepard (Capt.)

The Fort has been practicing every day, and out-weigh the local aggregation about 20 pounds per man, but the locals expect to put up "some" game. The Tigers expect to gain much ground by the old style grinding game, and depend much on line plunging. The style of play used by the Fort is unknown so far, as they have only played a few practice games with other Company teams. The game will be called at 3:30 P. M., at Sunset Park, and a small admission of 25 cents will be charged to help defray the expences incident to the game.

HARD AT PRACTICE.

Boys' Brigade Quint Preparing to Meet A. C. C. Team.

The team which will represent the Boys' Brigade against the Atlantic Christian College is hard at work and this is telling, as they already show much improvement under the leadership of Capt. H. B. Register, who is working them into form in every department of the game. Their long shots are especially accurate, while their dribbling of the ball and shooting from this play is fast and easy. Their defensive work is also being developed, as they realize that they will have a stoff proposition to carry off the honors at Wilson on Thanksgiving Day.

They will be more or less handicapped in this game, as they will be on a strange floor which is much larger, the lighting is different and other features will enter into the game which will keep them on their mettle and should they win there the result of the game in Wilmington the following week is almost assured. The Brigade team has the distinction of being the only team from another city which has ever won a game at Wilson, Company B turning this trick last winter. They will endeavor to duplicate the feat next month.

GOOD GAMES PROMISED.

Ties to be Played Off at Brigade This Evening.

The games in the Thursday Night Basket Ball League at the Boys' Brigade promises to be more than usually interesting tonight. The Rebels and Orioles are tied for first place, with the Skeeters and Bugs tied for the next position. Tonight these ties will be broken, as those who are tied will play each other, the Orioles meeting the Rebels and the Bugs playing the Skeeters.

Naturally each team is very anxious to maintain the highest place and this desire is bound to stimulate the players of each team to their best efforts, hence some good sport will be sure to follow these meetings. Each team will have out its best players presenting their strongest line-up.

The games will begin at 8:30 o'clock sharp. Mr. Harry Register will officiate in the capacity of referee and this assures satisfaction to all. The public is invited to witness these games. Admission will be free.

FOOTBALL RESULTS.

JUSTICES DIFFER IN UNANIMOUS OPINION

In Southern Express Company Vs. City of High Point

Judge Clark's Views Radically Different From That of Other Four Justices of Supreme Court—Other Opinions Filed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—Marked difference of opinion between Chief Justice Walter Clark and the other four justices of the Supreme Court was manifested this afternoon in the delivery of opinion in the noted case of Southern Express Company vs. the city of High Point, the matter of the power of the Legislature to prohibit importation of liquors into the State or any point in the State for personal use only, giving rise to differences without the majority of the court actually taking any stand on the question.

The court unanimously affirmed the lower court in which Judge Lane declined to restrain the High Point authorities from interfering with interState deliveries of liquors under the provisions of Chapter 1014, Public Laws of 1907, prohibiting deliveries of liquors in High Point township, the Supreme Court holding that a restraining order could not issue, and that the proper way to test the issue was for a railroad agent to be arrested for delivering such shipments, and then bring the test case through the courts.

Judge Brown writes the opinion for the court, setting out that the State has never declared itself against deliveries of liquors for personal use, and that the question as to whether deliveries for personal use could be prohibited under the United States and the State constitutions is not made an issue in the case, and has not been passed upon by the courts; that the furthest the State has gone is to make the possession of more than a certain quantity prima facie evidence of purpose to sell, and it is not contended that the Webb-Kenyon law has any effect where a State permits importation for personal or other lawful use.

Chief Justice Clark filed an opinion concurring in the result, only insisting that the High Point act does prohibit for personal use and that the Legislature has ample power to prohibit importation of liquors for personal or any other uses. He cites the action, too, of the State Medical Society in declaring that liquors are not necessary for medicinal purposes. He holds that the right of the Legislature barring liquors for personal use is one of public policy, resting with the people, and that the courts have no part in the issue, the people having the right to prohibit both making and importation for personal use or any other use.

The list of opinions follows:

Norfolk Southern Railway Company vs. Morehead City, affirmed; Lloyd vs. Swansboro Land & Lumber Co., Onslow, affirmed; Board of Education vs. Wake Commissioners, affirmed; Holloway vs. Green, Wake, affirmed; Hay vs. Fire Insurance, Wake, affirmed; Carter & Pratt vs. Reaves, Pender no error; Southern Express Co. vs. High Point, affirmed; Barefoot vs. Lee, Cumberland, no error.

TRYING TO ENCOURAGE PRODUCTION OF MEAT.

Bureau of Animal Industry at Raleigh Making Special Efforts.

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—"There is no danger of the market for meat in North Carolina becoming overstocked, and we are trying to encourage the growing of more of it," said Prof. Dan T. Gray, chief of the bureau of animal industry of the North Carolina experiment station yesterday. "Some people are complaining to us that the agitation now going on will result in our farmers turning all their attention to the growing of corn and pork, and result in the market being flushed. That condition will not exist. In all the history of the world such a condition has never existed."

The department is especially encouraging the raising of products in the State, such as corn, wheat, beef, cheese, butter and like articles, and has recently employed a number of officials to engage in the work of demonstrating these arts.

At the 25th annual session of the Association of Agricultural College and experiment station workers to be held in Washington City November 11, 12 and 13, President Hill will deliver an address on "Some Changed Atttitudes," and Prof. Dan T. Gray on "Possibilities of Meat Production in the South."

RESERVE BOARD SAYS GOLD MUST BE USED.

Or Other Lawful Money in Transfer of Reserves to Reserve Banks.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The Federal Reserve Board tonight notified all banks that are members of the new system that gold or lawful money must be used in making the transfer of reserve deposits from the present banks to the Federal Reserve banks. This step is designed to fill the vaults of the 12 Reserve banks with money as soon as the institutions are opened November 16th, and will permit the ready issue of Federal Reserve notes to member banks.

The board announced also that this order would apply to subscriptions to be made to the capital stock of Reserve banks by member institutions, the first installment of which is due November 2. The transfer of reserves will begin after Secretary McAdoo formally has announced that the 12 banks have been opened.

The Federal Reserve Board appealed to "the patriotic spirit of all member banks" to do their utmost in facilitating the different work of inaugurating the new system.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 28.—James Southgate, 82 years old, father of James H. Southgate, who, at one time was a candidate for the vice presidency of the United States on the Prohibition ticket, died here today. Mo. Southgate had been prominent in Masonic circles for years. The funeral will be held here Friday.

—Maj. W. H. Stickle, United States Engineer, left yesterday afternoon for Newbern to attend Federal Court as a witness in an important case.

TRAINING THE FIRE FIGHTERS.

Brockwell, of State Bureau of Fire Prevention, is in Kinston.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 28.—Sherwood Brockwell, chief engineer of the bureau of fire prevention of the State Insurance Department, is training Kinston's volunteer fire department in the use of the appliances with which it is equipped and inspecting the business district of the city. Brockwell, an ex-chief of the Raleigh department, is one of the foremost men in the State on fire fighting and prevention methods. Last night he lectured to a class in the downtown fire station, and this afternoon drilled a number of the men with apparatus. The Wilmington department has been asked for the loan of a few scaling ladders, in the use of which implement the Kinston volunteers will be instructed by Brockwell. He was asked to come here by the mayor and Fire Chief Moseley. Mr. Brockwell will conclude his visit here tomorrow night.

$25 Suits and Overcoats for Men are the BEST Made-Ready Clothes in the World at That Price :: ::

Plain statement of a plain fact. Has been so through three generations. Will stay so.

Why best? Because they do not stop (as does the usual $25 suit) at good fabrics and good style; they contain the best possible workmanship.

Without that the best of fabrics won't stand, the best of style won't stick.

Fall and Winter suits and topcoats are ready.
